The Adventures of Lou and Fin

Lou and Fin were trotting around the park, playing a game of dodging the trees.

Fin stopped next to a patch of flowers and wagged his tail at Lou.

"Lou, did you know that if you catch a special leaf, you can earn a hero's badge?"

"Wow, that sounds cool!" Lou jumped up and down. "What leaf?"

"Oh, not just any leaf," Fin grinned. "It needs to be a leaf from a hedge."

Lou looked around. He couldn't see a hedge. "We need to go near the ridge to find a hedge," Fin explained. "There's one next to the rabbit hutch up there."

The two dogs trotted over the bridge that led up the mountain. They trudged up the path and came to the ridge, where a tall hedge grew. "See that leaf sticking up at the top?" Fin pointed. "Try to snatch that one!"

Lou felt nervous. The hedge was tall and close to the edge. "Alright, but make sure you catch me if I fall!"

Lou nudged his way up the hedge. He wobbled on his paws, but not before he snatched the leaf and clutched it tightly in his mouth. Then, Lou tumbled back onto the ground.

"You didn't catch me!" Lou laughed as Fin came running over. "But I think you owe me a badge for this."

"You're right, Lou!" Fin wagged his tail. "You deserve a hero's badge!"

The Adventures of Lou and Fin

"Oh, not just any leaf," Fin grinned, "it needs to be a leaf from a hedge."

Lou looked around. He couldn't see a hedge.

"We need to go near the ridge to find a hedge," Fin explained. "There's one next to the rabbit hutch up there."
