The Adventures of Lou and Fin

"They're not exactly golden, but we can use them to make a crown," Fin smiled.

Lou and Fin had fun putting the flowers on Lou's head to make a pretend crown.

They loved having adventures outside together.

Fluency Passage

Lou and Fin raced around the playground one sunny afternoon.

"Lou, can you find a golden flower? If you do, you'll become the king of all dogs and get a magic crown!" Fin said cheekily.

"Oh wow!" Lou's eyes sparkled. "Now that sounds great! Where can I find one?"

"First," Fin wagged his tail, "you need to crawl under the slide, then roll downhill."

Lou wiggled under the slide and ran over to the grassy hill. "This is fun!" Lou shouted as he rolled down the lawn. Fin laughed out loud.

"Now, go to the seesaw and bounce three times," Fin called out. Lou trotted round to the seesaw and tried to climb on, but he lost his balance and fell over.

"Never mind. Try to climb the tower instead and bounce there!" Fin said, pointing to another part of the park.

"That's easier," Lou agreed as he scrambled up the playground tower. He jumped up and down happily.

"Now, get ready to catch this," Fin called out and tossed up a brown paper bag. Lou caught it in his mouth.

"What is this?" Lou asked, dropping the bag. He opened it carefully, and inside were lots of yellow flowers!

"These are dandelions!" Lou wagged his tail.

"They're not exactly golden, but we can use them to make a crown," Fin smiled. Lou and Fin had fun putting the flowers on Lou's head to make a pretend crown. They loved having adventures outside together.
