

MEASURES OF CENTRAL TENDENCY

INTERACTIVE SLIDES

- Includes:
  - Individual Activity
  - Partner Component
  - Practice Problems
  - Reflection Questions

Paste your results from the previous slide here then use it to answer the questions below. This is considered your data set.

| What is the range of the data set? | What is the Median of the data set? | What is the mode of the data set? | Are there any outliers? Explain why not. |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
|                                    |                                     |                                   |                                          |

