Think Sheet: Encouraging a Classmate to Make a Poor Choice

What Happened?
Explain what you encouraged your classmate to do that they should not do?
What happened next?

Why Did It Happen?
Choose the reason(s) why you encouraged your classmate to make a poor choice.
☐ I thought it would be funny or entertaining.
☐ I wanted to see what they would do.
☐ I didn't think about how it would affect them or others.
☐ I wanted them to do something I didn't want to do myself.
☐ Other: _____

Who was Affected?
How did encouraging a classmate to make a poor choice affect them, your classmates, and yourself?

Why Does It Matter?
When you encourage your classmates to make good choices:
• You help them stay out of trouble and focused on learning.
• It shows kindness and respect for others.
• It creates a positive classroom where everyone feels supported.

What Can I Do Instead?
Next time I feel like encouraging a classmate to make a poor choice, I can:
☐ Think about how my words or actions might influence them.
☐ Encourage them to make a better choice or stay on task.
☐ Set a good example by following the rules myself.
☐ Talk to the teacher if I'm unsure how to handle the situation.
☐ Other: _____

Scenario Practice
You want your friend to throw a paper airplane during class because you think it would be funny. What should you do? Circle the best answer.
A) Tell them to throw it and laugh when they do.
B) Encourage them to focus on the lesson instead of throwing the airplane.
C) Watch quietly and hope no one gets caught.
