

website for game play

STUDENTS WILL ACCESS THE GAME IN THEIR BROWSER - NO PREP FOR YOU, JUST SHARE THE URL!

Your great-grandfather recently died and he has mentioned you in his will. But you will need to learn a little bit about World War 1 before you can see what he has left you.

World War 1

 lovebugshotography@gmail.com
(not shared) Switch account

* Required

10 letter word lock (ALL CAPS) *

Your answer

To all my great-grandchildren:

It has been many years since I fought in the Great War, but those memories will never fade. So many of my friends left for Europe and never came back. Some of them came back, but weren't the same men as when they left.

I am leaving you this medal. It is to be shared and used as a reminder to you all that sometimes, duty calls and we must answer. I don't believe that I am a hero, and this medal is cherished not because of how I earned it, but because it reminds me of my friends and fellow soldiers who didn't return home.

I want you to understand what this medal really means. I've locked it up safely in a box. In order to open it, you'll need to find the codes to open the lock. I hope

teacher guide and instructions

DETAILED GUIDE ON HOW TO PLAY AND WHAT KEY UNLOCKS EACH LOCK. GIVE YOUR STUDENTS SUPPORT AS NECESSARY
BASED ON TIME AND ABILITY.

Undersea Killers

On the Undersea Killers page, they will need to click on the button about World War I submarines. The answer for this clue is 1915.

Home page

When students open the home page, you will see a header image, and a letter to the great-grandchildren and a form where students will enter the combinations to open the lock.

To get to the other clues, they will need to read the letter while scrolling their mouse over it. There are five links hidden in the letter. When they scroll over a hidden link, the hand icon will show up and it will be clickable.

The links are hidden over the words:

great-grandchildren
leaving you this medal
I want you to understand
such a war again
Love, your great grandfather

To all my great-grandchildren:

It has been many years since I fought in the Great War, but those memories will never fade. So many of my friends left for Europe and never came back. Some of them came back, but weren't the same men as when they left.

I am leaving you this medal. It is to be shared and used as a reminder to you all that sometimes, duty calls and we must answer. I don't believe that I am a hero, and this medal is cherished not because of how I earned it, but because it reminds me of my friends and fellow soldiers who didn't return home.

I want you to understand what this medal really means. I've locked it up safely in a box. In order to open it, you'll need to find the codes to open the lock. I hope you'll learn something and be able to understand what it was like for those of us who fought in the Great War, and why we hoped never to see such a war again.

Love,
Your great-grandfather

topics included:

Undersea Killers

On the Undersea Killers page, students will see a photo of a U-boat with crew. If they will need to click on the flag at the back of the boat. It will take them to an about World War I submarines. They are looking for information about the sinking answer for this clue is 1915 and it will unlock the 4-digit number lock.

copyright © 2017 Heather Frackiewicz

Trench Warfare

On the trench warfare page, students will see an image of a trench filled with soldiers and equipment. Clicking on the little box near the front of the image will take them to a video about life in the trenches. The word they are looking for that will open the 7-letter word lock is BORED.

copyright © 2017 Heather Frackiewicz

Assassination!

On the assassination page, students will see an image of the assassination of Archduke and the Duchess. They will find the clue by clicking on the Archduke's head. It is a video about the event. They are looking for the date of the assassination as the 06/28/1914.

copyright © 2017 Heather Frackiewicz

Peace?

This page will show an image of the signing of the armistice agreement on a train. Students will get to the next clue by clicking on the papers on the table. Once they open it, they will be prompted to make a copy of a Google sheets document. They must be logged in to a Google account in order to open and edit the document!

The first question on the sheet is the name of the peace (Armistice). Once the word 'Armistice' is typed into the column next to the question, a URL will show up. Students should click on the link, as it will tell them the rest of the answers.

They will need to find:
The number of cannon surrendered (5000)
The number of soldiers surrendered (1400)

14)

War officially ends!

On this page, students will see an image of a plane ticket. The ticket has the name of Woodrow Wilson and shows a departure from Washington Dulles airport, but the destination airport is obscured by a coffee stain. If they click on the stain, in the "To:" area of the ticket, it will take them to a short video about the Treaty of Versailles. Students are looking for the name of the President's destination (Versailles) in order to unlock the 10-letter lock.

copyright © 2017 Heather Frackiewicz

combination 72216. If formula in any of the cells set and open a new copy.

