MODERNIZE IT

Read the amendment as it was written at the time of its acceptance into the constitution.
Discuss with a partner how the amendment might be rewritten if it was being written and accepted into the constitution this year.

1 Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for redress of grievances.

2 A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

9 The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

10 The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

Reflect: As you were modernizing the amendments, what did you find that the fathers thought their words would still carry over?

Predict: What do you think would be the most beneficial next amendment?
