The Adventures of Lou and Fin

They had to select letters on the locked boxes to spell a trigraph word.

He spelled bridge, and the locks popped open!

Fin looked around, then used his paw to unify the letters.

A toy unicorn jumped out holding a trophy!

"Well done, Lou and Fin!" All their animal friends cheered for the two dogs who had won the fun race day.

Fluency Passage

Lou and Fin raced to the park, tails wagging with excitement. Today was the Bicentennial Celebration Day. It was the Universal Race Day, where all the animals in the town could race in a vehicle of their choice.

Lou and Fin had their tandem bicycle ready to ride. The race was a trifecta with three stages. First, all competitors had to ride something with at least one wheel. Then they had to complete a triathlon-obstacle course. Finally, they had to solve a word puzzle starting with a trigraph.

The starting line of the event looked funny with all the animals lined up, wearing uniform hats with their competition numbers on them. Bear was wobbling on a unicycle. Rabbit looked ready to go on a tricycle, and Tiger was on a tricolor train carriage.

The race started! Lou and Fin rode their bicycle through the triangular arch. They hopped off at the obstacle course, where they leaped across triangle-shaped stones and splashed through triple puddles of water.

To reach the puzzle activity, they rode past biannual flowers that were in full bloom.

"This is so fun, Fin!" Lou wagged his tail happily.

"Let's solve this puzzle now," Fin was determined to win.

They had to select letters on the locked boxes to spell a trigraph word. Fin looked around, then used his paw to unify the letters. He spelled bridge, and the locks popped open! A toy unicorn jumped out holding a trophy!
