Sometimes I might miss my family while I am at school. Some children might even cry a little bit because they miss their family, but the teachers and classmates will help them to feel better.

This is the principal's office.

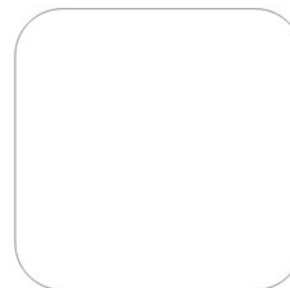

The principal looks after all the children and the teachers at the school.

There are tables and chairs in the classroom and a mat where all the children can sit to listen to the teacher read us a story or to help us to learn new things.
We learn about reading and maths and science and lots of things.

There are toilets at my school.
The teachers teach all the new children about where the toilets are and how to use them.
I am glad about that because it is very important to know about the toilets.
There are toilets for the boys and toilets for the girls.
I always flush and wash my hands after I use the toilet.

When I am going home, I say goodbye and smile and wave to the teachers and the other children.
