Traffic Light Behavior Chart- Editable Bundle

Supports Daily Behavior Tracking
& Parent Communication

Why Teachers Need a Simple Behavior System

- Students lose focus without clear expectations
- Repeating reminders all day is exhausting
- Parent communication is important, but can be time consuming

A printable behavior tracking sheet. It features a header with 'Student:' and 'Date:' fields, a 'Target Behavior:' section with a car icon, and a table with three columns: 'Task/Activity', 'How Did I Do?' (with three colored circles for tracking), and 'Notes'. The sheet is decorated with car icons and a copyright notice for '©The Responsive Educator 2024'.A digital version of the behavior tracking sheet displayed on a tablet. It includes the same header, target behavior section, and tracking table as the printable version, with a car icon in the bottom right corner and a copyright notice for '©The Responsive Educator 2024'.

These Traffic Light Charts Make Behavior Tracking....

- ✓ Fast
- ✓ Visual
- ✓ Consistent
- ✓ Parent-friendly

How Does It Work?

1 Choose target behavior(s)

2 Write or type in daily schedule (EDITABLE!)

3 Mark red, yellow, or green after each activity

4 Add quick notes

5 Send a copy home for quick communication

Why Teachers Love It

- Great for IEP, BIP, RTI, & classroom behavior goals
- Editable = use with any student, any schedule
- No stickers, apps, or clip charts needed
- Saves time but still gives meaningful information
