Narrative Writing Easter Adventure Escape Room

Where there should have been sparkly, shiny wrappers hiding all around, there was nothing.

Mia looked at Toby. Toby looked around. All they could see was empty grass and a confused little squirrel.

"Why are there no eggs?" Mia asked, a frown appearing on her face.

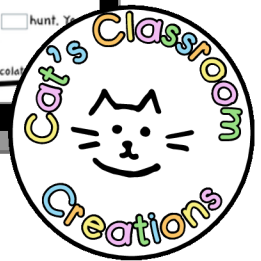

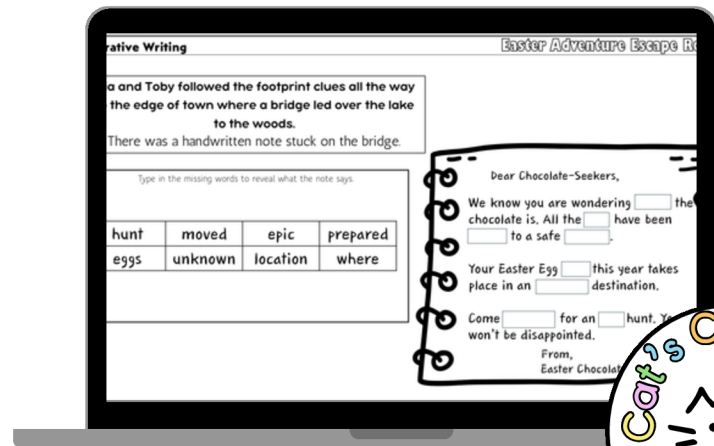

"Maybe..." Toby began, but something on the ground distracted him before he could finish his sentence.

Write the words in the correct order to reveal what Toby saw.

Narrative Writing Easter Adventure Escape Room

Without hesitation, Mia and Toby launched into action. They would investigate this mystery on the ground at once.

The two friends followed the clues. They passed by the letterbox and beyond the footpath.

"Where do you think it leads?" Toby asked. Mia shrugged her shoulders.

Complete the maze to follow the trail.

Narrative Writing Easter Adventure Escape Room

This year, they planned their Easter morning perfectly. They would wake up early, grab their baskets, and collect as many chocolate eggs as they could find around the neighborhood.

Everything felt just right that Easter morning. The sun was shining and the crisp spring air felt fresh. But when Toby and Mia raced outside, something was terrible wrong.

Crack the code to reveal the problem.
