FAREWELL CARDS

From the first day of school until this day,
We've travelled together, come what may.
Lessons taught, stories shared,
In this classroom, love was bared.
Now it's time to spread your wings,
Explore the world, all its offerings.
Remember, my dear students, wherever you go,
You have the power to shine and glow.

FAREWELL CARDS

Dear

Can you believe it's time to say goodbye? It feels like just yesterday we were starting this wild and crazy journey together. Now, it's time for you to spread your wings and fly.

I wanted to take a moment to let you know how much you've meant to me this year. Your infectious energy, your genuine curiosity, and your infectious smile have brightened every single day. You have a special gift for bringing joy to those around you, and I want to thank you for all the laughter and happiness you've brought into our classroom.

You're not just an amazing student; you're an amazing person. Your kindness, compassion, and empathy have made a difference in the lives of your classmates. You have a heart of gold, always willing to lend a helping hand and support others. Never lose that beautiful spirit, my dear friend. It's what makes you truly remarkable.

I want you to know that I believe in you with all my heart. You have so much potential and so many incredible dreams to chase. Never be afraid to take risks, embrace new experiences, and step outside your comfort zone. The world is waiting for you to make your mark, and I have no doubt that you'll leave an indelible impression wherever you go.

As you embark on your summer adventures, I hope you fill your days with laughter, love, and endless joy. Take time to rest, recharge, and do the things that make your soul sing. And when the next school year rolls around, remember to embrace each day with enthusiasm and a hunger for knowledge.

Thank you for being an extraordinary student and an extraordinary person. The world needs more shining stars like you.

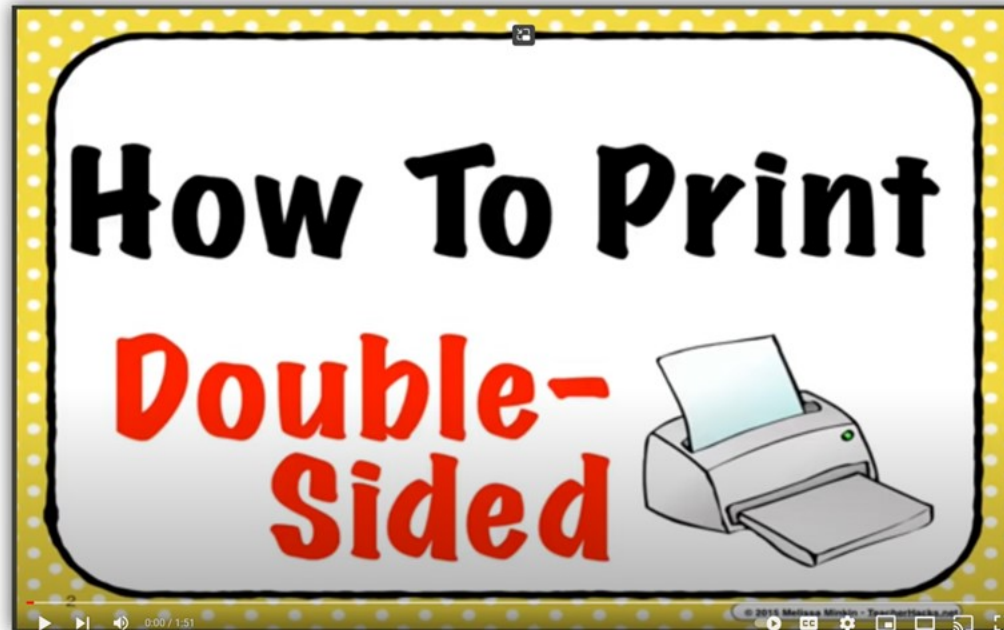

All the best in the future

Once you have decided on the images that you want to print, you can move them next to each other on the slides. You are able to print from the PowerPoint version, or you may choose to save your work as a PDF.

From there I find it easier to change the printer settings depending on what printer you have. These slides have been set up in A4 landscape mode, if you need that information for your printer. If you are in the US, letter size will work, however you may need to change the border settings., This video will walk you through printing back to back from a PowerPoint

Dear

Can you believe the school year is over? It feels like just yesterday we were starting this wild and wonderful adventure together. Now it's time to say farewell, but before we go, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on all the fantastic memories we've created.

First off, let me tell you what an incredible person you are. Your positive attitude, infectious laughter, and genuine kindness have made our classroom a better place. You have a heart of gold, always ready to lend a helping hand or brighten someone's day with your smile.

I also want to celebrate your achievements this year. You've worked so hard and made tremendous progress in your studies. I've seen you overcome obstacles, embrace challenges, and come out stronger on the other side. Your determination and growth mindset are admirable, and I know they will continue to serve you well in the future.

But let's not forget about all the fun we've had! From hilarious class discussions to memorable moments of laughter, everything in between, we've shared some unforgettable moments. Your energy and enthusiasm were contagious, and I want to thank you for making our time together so enjoyable.

As you embark on new adventures, remember to stay true to yourself. Keep being the extraordinary person you are—never let anyone dull your sparkle. Embrace your passions, follow your dreams, and never be afraid to take risks. You have so much potential, and the world is waiting to see what you'll accomplish.

Enjoy your summer break to the fullest. Take time to relax, have fun, and make beautiful memories. And remember, when the next school year begins, a new chapter of your journey unfolds—one filled with endless possibilities and exciting discoveries.

Stay amazing, stay true to yourself, and know that you are loved and valued.

All the best in the future
