Read the passage and highlight the words with the morpheme "tract".
Lucy loved books, especially old books and the way they smelt. One afternoon, she was helping her grandma clean out the attic. She discovered a box with a label that read "Grandpa's Manuscripts ". Curious, Lucy opened it and found a stack of handwritten pages. Each page was filled with descriptive writing that brought old stories and strange lands to life. Lucy was so excited to find her grandma's adventure stories!
Lucy carefully read the first few pages. Her grandma came in and smiled widely. "Your grandpa loved creating stories," she said, "he hoped one day to get them published."
Lucy lifted another page, confused. It was an old prescription slip. She turned it over and found a beautiful drawing and notes on the back. Her grandma had used it to jot down his creative ideas! Lucy laughed.
She read more of her grandpa's stories that night. The next day, she decided to create a typed transcript of the stories to keep them forever. She worked quickly at her computer, hoping that one day, Grandpa's manuscripts would be published.
