

This is what my sombrero would look like... is how I would make my sombrero...

My sombrero would be very colorful

It would have a very wide brim and lots of Tassles on it. I love tassles

First I would cut out the shape

Next I would decorate it with straw

Then I would try it on!!

TEACHING IDEAS

Are you excited to have an amazing time with sombreros?
Let's enjoy these fun activities with your friends'

Let's put on our thinking caps!

Design your very own hat.

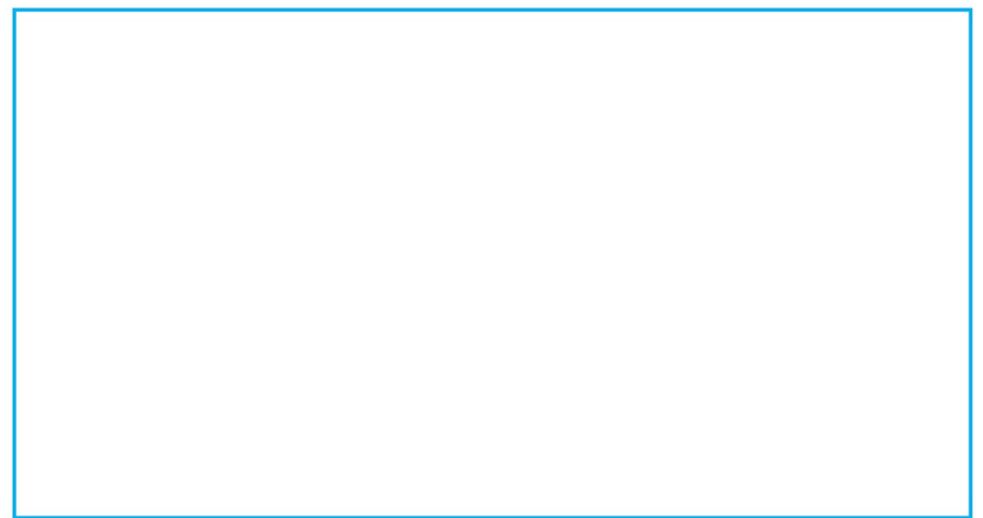

Start by thinking and planning.
What will your hat be used for?
When would be the best time to wear it?
Will you decorate your hat?
What materials will you use to make it?
After that, draw a picture of your incredible creation.
On the back of the picture, write a short paragraph explaining the purpose of your hat.
Don't forget to give it a unique name!

Children can use the templates provided and if printed on cardstock they can easily withstand heavier materials being glued onto them

This activity encourages creativity and critical thinking as children imagine and design their own hats, while also practicing their writing skills by explaining the purpose of their creations.

Have a blast exploring your hat-making skills!
