- Left worksheet: Features a large rectangular box on the left and a cloud-shaped thought bubble on the right.
- Middle worksheet: Includes a rectangular box labeled 'The Reverend' on the left, a cloud-shaped thought bubble labeled 'Napoleon' in the center, and a small rectangular box on the right.
- Right worksheet: Contains four distinct sections: a rectangular box labeled 'The Reverend' with the prompt 'Who is he? What do we learn about him?', a cloud-shaped thought bubble labeled 'Napoleon' with the prompt 'What happened to Napoleon? How did he get lost to the story?', a rectangular box labeled 'Pigs in Limetown' with the prompt 'What were the pigs used for in Limetown? Does this tell us about the purpose of U?', and a rectangular box labeled 'The Reverend's Fate' with the prompt 'What happens to him? Why is he a suspect?'. At the bottom, there is a large rectangular box labeled 'Thoughts/Questions/Other'.

In the bottom right corner of the rightmost worksheet, there is a circular logo for 'SURVIVING in secondary' featuring a globe and a pencil.
