In Search of the Emerald Dragon

The Kingdom of Avalor was surrounded by rolling green hills and ancient forests that whispered secrets. In the village, a young and talented squire named Cedric was chosen to train to be a knight. His mentor was Sir Aric, the bravest knight in all the lands.

Cedric went to live at the Avalor Castle, a majestic building that overlooked the whole town from its position at the top of the hill.

One morning, Cedric woke to go to his training session with Sir Aric. As he put on his chain mail and picked up his shield, a shiver ran down his spine. Something didn't feel right about the day.

Trying to ignore the feeling, Cedric went to find Sir Aric.

The story continued...

Cedric's armour clattered and clanged as he walked to the training yard. He found Sir Aric, who had a worried look on his face.

"What's the matter, Sir Aric?" Cedric asked.

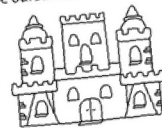

"We must go on an important quest," Sir Aric explained calmly. "The legendary Emerald Dragon has vanished."

Cedric's heart pounded in his chest. Without the Emerald Dragon, the guardian of the ancient forest, the Kingdom of Avalon wouldn't be safe. "We must find the dragon and bring her back to safety."

"Why me? I'm not ready for this quest!" Cedric protested, feeling anxious.

"I will be with you the whole way," Sir Aric reassured him.

"You are destined for greatness, and have the courage of a true knight. Let us prepare ourselves for this quest!"
