

QUOTATION MARKS

QUOTATION MARKS FOR DIALOGUE PRACTICE

Directions: Please read the dialogue. Use the space below to write the corrected version.

"I cannot wait to tell you about it," replied Bailey. This week will not end. Which roller coaster do you want to ride first asked Hayden. The Twisted Twister is the best roller coaster Bailey stated emphatically the other roller coaster pale in comparison. Hayden disagreed. The Raging Roller Coaster is superior because it takes the rider upside down and has the steepest drop. Bailey sighed and said I guess we will have to agree to disagree and ride both roller coasters. Sounds like a plan. Hayden responded but only if we ride The Raging Roller Coaster first. Fine Bailey replied let's get through the week first. Hayden nodded in agreement and the pair headed to science.

Name _____
Date _____

QUOTATION MARKS FOR DIALOGUE PRACTICE

Directions: Please read the piece below. Rewrite the piece, correcting the punctuation for dialogue. Use the space below and the back of the paper if necessary to complete the corrected version.

I cannot wait to visit the amusement park exclaimed Hayden. Tell me about it replied Bailey this week will not end. Which roller coaster do you want to ride first asked Hayden. The Twisted Twister is the best roller coaster Bailey stated emphatically the other roller coaster pale in comparison. Hayden disagreed. The Raging Roller Coaster is superior because it takes the rider upside down and has the steepest drop. Bailey sighed and said I guess we will have to agree to disagree and ride both roller coasters. Sounds like a plan. Hayden responded but only if we ride The Raging Roller Coaster first. Fine Bailey replied let's get through the week first. Hayden nodded in agreement and the pair headed to science.

FLIPBOOK
NOTES

STUDENT
PRACTICE

RULES FOR DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

What is dialogue?

- Conversation between characters.
- Adds interest
- Moves plot forward

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

© AnnotatedELA 2021

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION 1

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION 2

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION 3

© AnnotatedELA 2021

FOR DIALOGUE

FLIPBOOK NOTEBOOK NOTES

PRINT AND USE OR HAVE STUDENTS WRITE

RULES FOR DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

What is dialogue?

- Conversation between characters.
- Adds interest
- Moves plot forward

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

DIALOGUE PUNCTUATION

Rule #2

When a quotation is broken into two parts, the second part begins with a lowercase letter.

EXAMPLE:

"What are some ways," Ms. Bowker inquired, "that we can make the ed Marley, "is to pick

?"

DIALOGUE QUOTATION RULES

Rule #1: A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

Rule #2: When a quotation is broken into to two parts, the second part begins with a lowercase letter.

Rule #3: All punctuation marks go inside the quotation marks when writing dialogue.

Rule #4: When the quotation is followed by statements like, he replied, Rylie asked, and Clayton. Shouted, etc. use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks. Do not use a period.

Rule #5: When a different person speaks start a new paragraph (start a new line and indent).

Other Reminders:

- Be specific when stating how a person said something; avoid using SAID over and over. Example: use shouted, exclaimed, replied, asked, etc. instead.
- Make it clear who is speaking.
- Have peers read over the dialogue to check for clarity and punctuation.

PUNCTUATION 2

PUNCTUATION 3

PUNCTUATION 4

PUNCTUATION 5

FLIPBOOK NOTEBOOK NOTES

PRINT AND USE OR HAVE STUDENTS WRITE

NOTES FOR FLIPBOOK

Rule #5

When a different person speaks start a new paragraph (start a new line and indent).

EXAMPLE:

"Yesterday, I was so tired I fell asleep in Social Studies," Melissa said.

"I know," Stanley smiled, "the class could not concentrate because you were snoring!"

BACK FLAP : DIALOGUE QUOTATION RULES

Rule #1: A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

Rule #2: When a quotation is broken into two parts, the second part begins with a lowercase letter.

Rule #3: All punctuation marks go inside the quotation marks when writing dialogue.

Rule #4: When the quotation is followed by statements like he replied, Rylie asked, and Clayton shouted, etc. use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks. Do not use a period.

Rule #5: When a different person speaks start a new paragraph (start a new line and indent).

Other Reminders:

- Be specific when stating how a person said something. Example: use shouted, whispered, etc. instead.
- Make it clear who is speaking.
- Have peers read over the dialogue to check for punctuation.

NOTES FOR FLIPBOOK

Rule #1

A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

EXAMPLE:

Nick yelled, "Watch out!"

"Are you telling the truth?" Marissa asked.

Rule #2

When a quotation is broken into two parts, the second part begins with a lowercase letter.

EXAMPLE:

"What are some ways," Ms. Bowker inquired, "that we can make the community better?"

"One way," replied Marley, "is to pick up trash weekly."

Rule #3

All punctuation marks go inside the quotation marks when writing dialogue.

EXAMPLE:

"Let's finish our homework," suggested Kallie.

Liam responded, "Didn't we just do our homework?"

"There is a backside," Kallie noted, "we have to do all the math problems."

Rule #4

When a quotation is followed by statements like he replied, Rylie asked, and Clayton shouted, etc. use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks in the quotation. Do not use a period.

EXAMPLE:

"School is becoming more difficult," stated Scott.

"It seems difficult because you have been absent," Sam responded.

PRINTABLE NOTES

QUOTATION MARKS FOR DIALOGUE NOTES

Rule #1

A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

Example:

Nick yelled, "Watch out!"

Are you telling the truth?" Marissa asked

Rule #2

When a quotation is broken into two parts, the second part begins with a lowercase letter.

Example:

"What are some ways," Ms. Bowker inquired, "that we can make the community better?"

"One way," replied Marley, "is to pick up trash weekly."

Rule #3

All punctuation marks go inside the quotation marks when writing dialogue.

Example:

"Let 's finish our homework," suggested Kallie.

Liam responded, "Didn 't we just do our homework?"

"There is a backside," Kallie noted, "we have to do all the math problems."

Rule #4

When a quotation is followed by statements like, he replied, Rylie asked, and Clayton shouted, etc. use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks in the quotation. Do not use a period.

Example:

"School is becoming more difficult," stated Scott.

"It seems difficult because you have been absent," Sam responded.

Rule #5

When a different person speaks start a new paragraph (start a new line and indent).

Example:

"Yesterday, I was so tired I fell asleep in Social Studies," Melissa said.

"I know," Stanley smiled, "the class could not concentrate because you were snoring!"

© AnnotatedELA 2021

Print the notes for students to copy into flipbook OR to keep in folder/binder

QUOTATION MARKS FOR DIALOGUE PRACTICE

Directions: Please read the piece below. Rewrite the piece, correcting the punctuation for dialogue. Use the space below and the back of the paper if necessary to complete the corrected version.

I cannot wait to visit the amusement park exclaimed Hayden. Tell me about it, replied Bailey this week will not end. Which roller coaster do you want to ride first asked Hayden. The Twisted Twister is the best roller coaster Bailey stated emphatically the other roller coaster pale in comparison. Hayden disagreed. The Raging Roller Coaster is superior because it takes the rider upside down and has the steepest drop. Bailey sighed and said I guess we will have to agree to disagree and ride both roller coasters. Sounds like a plan. Hayden responded but only if we ride The Raging Roller Coaster first. Fine, Bailey replied. Let's go through the week first. Hayden nodded in agreement and the pair headed to science.

Name _____

Date _____

QUOTATION MARKS FOR DIALOGUE PRACTICE

Directions: Please read the piece below. Rewrite the piece, correcting the punctuation for dialogue. Use the space below and the back of the paper if necessary to complete the corrected version.

I cannot wait to visit the amusement park exclaimed Hayden. Tell me about it, replied Bailey this week will not end. Which roller coaster do you want to ride first asked Hayden. The Twisted Twister is the best roller coaster Bailey stated emphatically the other roller coaster pale in comparison. Hayden disagreed. The Raging Roller Coaster is superior because it takes the rider upside down and has the steepest drop. Bailey sighed and said I guess we will have to agree to disagree and ride both roller coasters. Sounds like a plan. Hayden responded but only if we ride The Raging Roller Coaster first. Fine, Bailey replied. Let's go through the week first. Hayden nodded in agreement and the pair headed to science.

PRACTICE

Students will read a paragraph and add missing dialogue punctuation.

Quotation Marks for Dialogue

RULE #1

A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

EXAMPLE:

Nick yelled, "Watch out!"

Are you telling the truth?" Marissa asked

© AnnotatedELA 2021 -2022

Quotation Marks for Dialogue

RULE #4

When a quotation is followed by statements like, he replied, Rylie asked, and Clayton shouted, etc. use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks in the quotation. Do not use a period.

EXAMPLE:

"School is becoming more difficult," stated Scott.

"It seems difficult because you have been absent," Sam responded.

PRESENTATION OF NOTES
INCLUDED

© 2021 -2022