WOMEN'S HISTORY HISTORICAL FIGURES

SOJOURNER TRUTH

Birth Date: November 18th, 1797

Birth Place: Swartekill, New York

Early Life: She was born enslaved and only spoke Dutch. She was auctioned and traded to several different slave owners throughout her childhood. In 1815, she married an older enslaved man and had five children.

Accomplishments: In 1826, she escaped to freedom. She spoke at the Ohio Women's Rights Convention in 1851. The speech demanded equal human rights for all women and became known during the Civil War as "Ain't I a Woman?". She recruited black troops for the Union Army and continued fighting for a more equal society for women and African Americans.
