

EDGAR ALLAN POE UNIT BUNDLE

Background • The Fall of the House of Usher • The Raven

Three coordinated resources that can be taught as a short Poe unit or used separately.

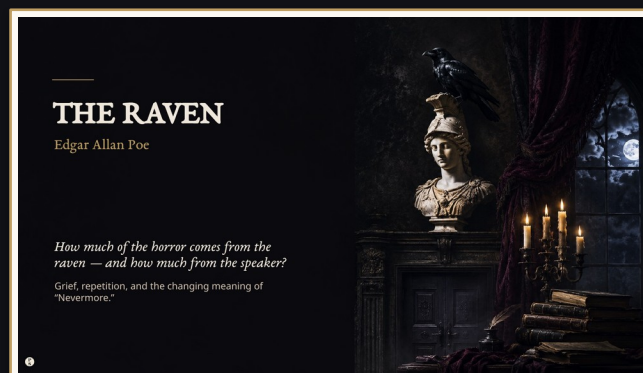

POE BACKGROUND

HOUSE OF USHER

THE RAVEN

3 RESOURCES

75 PAGES / SLIDES

≈10 CLASS PERIODS

$14.99 BUNDLE

The preview uses screenshots from the actual files included in the three live products.

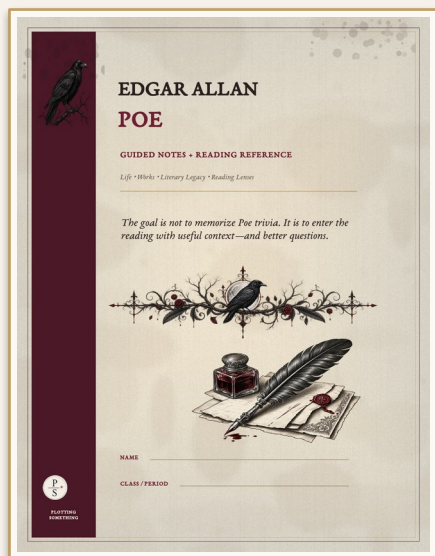

RESOURCE 1

Edgar Allan Poe Background

12 presentation slides • 5-page student packet • 4-page teacher guide / answer key

Students get useful context—life, major works, literary legacy, legend vs. evidence, and reading lenses they can carry into later texts.

Student packet

Reading reference

Teacher guide

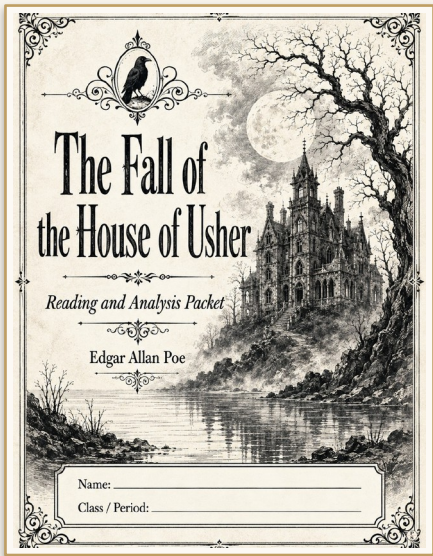

RESOURCE 2

The Fall of the House of Usher

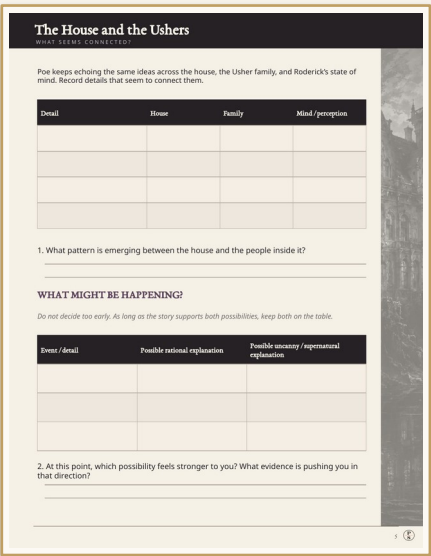

10 lesson slides • 7-page reading/analysis packet • 6-page teacher guide • 2 quiz forms
+ key

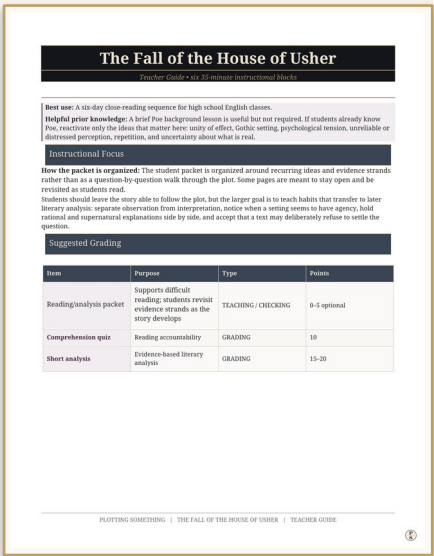

The packet is intentionally thematic rather than strictly chronological: students revisit the house, family, mind, competing explanations, and the story’s final echoes.

Packet cover

Evidence tracking

Teacher guide

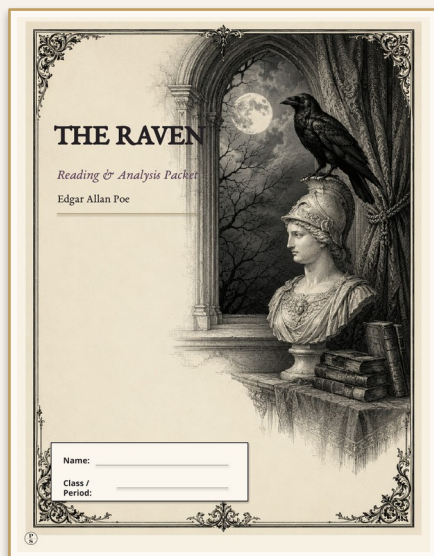

RESOURCE 3

The Raven

10 lesson slides • 6-page reading/analysis packet • 7-page teacher guide • 2 quiz forms
+ key

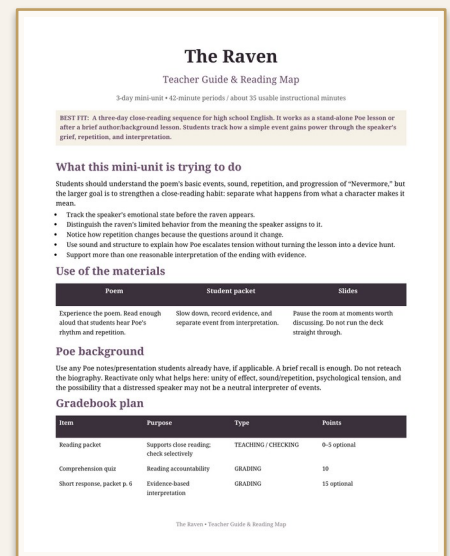

Students move through the poem in order while repeatedly separating what the raven actually does from what the grieving speaker makes “Nevermore” mean.

Packet cover

Close-reading work

Teacher guide

Assessments, teacher support, and editable files

The text units each include two 10-question comprehension quiz forms and an answer key.

Quiz A
Name: _____ Class: _____ Score: ____ / 10

Choose the best answer for each question. Mark answers on your Scantron or on the answer line below.

1. Why does the narrator travel to the House of Usher? A. He has inherited property nearby. B. Roderick has written asking him to visit. C. Madeline has asked him to bring a doctor. D. He is investigating the history of the house.	6. What happens to Madeline before the final night? A. She leaves the house without telling Roderick. B. She is sent to a hospital. C. She appears to die and is placed in a vault. D. She disappears while walking near the tarn.
2. Which best describes Roderick Usher's condition? A. He has lost his memory completely. B. He is physically strong but unable to speak. C. He suffers from nervous agitation and extreme sensitivity. D. He is recovering from an injury caused by a fall.	7. Why do Roderick and the narrator keep Madeline's body temporarily in a vault inside the house? A. Roderick fears that thieves will disturb the grave. B. Because of her unusual illness, the physicians' interest, and the remote family burial ground. C. The road to the cemetery has flooded. D. The narrator insists that she remain near Roderick.
3. Who is Madeline? A. Roderick's twin sister B. The narrator's sister C. Roderick's wife D. The housekeeper	8. While the narrator reads "The Mad Trist," what happens? A. The house becomes completely silent. B. Sounds in the house seem to echo events in the story. C. Roderick falls asleep. D. Madeline begins speaking from another room.
4. What small structural detail does the narrator notice on the house? A. A broken tower B. A deep hole beneath the doorway C. A narrow fissure running down the building D. A missing section of roof	9. What does Roderick finally reveal? A. He believes Madeline was alive when they placed her in the vault. B. He has planned to leave the house that night. C. He wrote because he wanted the narrator to buy the house. D. He believes the narrator caused Madeline's illness.
5. What does Roderick believe about the House of Usher? A. It was built over a hidden graveyard. B. It has had a powerful influence on his family and on him. C. It belongs to someone outside the family. D. It contains a secret passage to the tarn.	10. What does the narrator see as he escapes at the end? A. Roderick following him on horseback B. Madeline standing at an upstairs window C. The fissure widening as the house collapses into the tarn D. A group of servants returning to the house

Answer line: 1. ____ 2. ____ 3. ____ 4. ____ 5. ____ 6. ____ 7. ____ 8. ____ 9. ____ 10. ____

Usher — Quiz A

EDITABLE PPTX

PRINT-READY PDF

DOCX WHERE INCLUDED

CSV QUIZ BANKS

BUNDLE VALUE

$18.49 → $14.99

Save $3.50 • about 19%

Please note: the complete texts of "The Fall of the House of Usher" and "The Raven" are not included. Use the editions you already teach.

The Raven - Comprehension Quiz - Version A

Name: _____ Period: _____

Circle the best answer. 1 point each.

1. At the beginning of the poem, what is the speaker doing? A. Waiting for a visitor B. Reading old books late at night C. Writing a letter to Lenore D. Watching a storm	6. What word does the raven repeat? A. Lenore B. Nevermore C. Remember D. Forever
2. Why is the speaker already emotionally unsettled? A. He is lost in an unfamiliar house B. He believes someone is following him C. He is grieving Lenore D. He has received bad news from a friend	7. What explanation does the speaker briefly consider for the raven's word? A. It learned the word from a previous owner B. It can read his thoughts C. It is repeating Lenore's final word D. It was trained by a magician
3. What first interrupts the speaker? A. A tapping at the chamber door B. A voice from the hallway C. A bird striking the window D. A clock ringing midnight	8. How do the speaker's questions change as the poem continues? A. They become less serious B. They shift from curious to increasingly personal and painful C. They focus more on the weather outside D. They become impossible for the raven to hear
4. What enters the room after the speaker opens the window? A. An owl B. A raven C. A bat D. A messenger	9. What does the speaker ask about Lenore near the end? A. Whether she sent the raven B. Whether he will see her again after death C. Whether she owned the books he is reading D. Whether she can hear the raven
5. Where does the raven perch? A. On the windowsill B. On the speaker's desk C. On a bust of Pallas above the door D. On the back of a chair	10. What is the final image of the raven? A. It flies out at sunrise B. It falls asleep beside the speaker C. It remains above the door while its shadow falls across the floor D. It disappears when the speaker says Lenore's name

Score: ____ / 10

The Raven — Quiz A