2 DIFFERENT GAMES TO PLAY

RUN-ON or Sentence? DIRECTIONS:

RUN-ON OR SENTENCE? GAMEPLAY DIRECTIONS (2-6 PLAYERS)

1. Shuffle the cards (with or without the action cards) and place them upside down in the center of the group.
2. Rock, paper, scissors to decide who goes first.
3. The first player will draw 1 card from the stack and read the sentence aloud to the group.
 - a. If the statement is a complete sentence, the player keeps the card and earns 1 point.
 - b. If the statement is a run-on, all the players must rewrite the run-on. The first person to correctly fix the run-on can steal the card.
4. Continue taking turns until all cards are gone.
5. The player with the most cards wins.

PLAYING WITH ACTION CARDS:

While the action cards are not necessary in order to play the game, they do make the game fun. You'll get . . .

Reverse - When a player draws this card, they lose their turn and the game play reverses or last player gets to take another turn.

Lose a turn - The player who draws this card loses their turn.

Extra turn - The player who draws this card gets to take 2 turns.

Rock/paper/scissors challenge - The player who draws this card can challenge another player to a rock-paper-scissors game. The winner steals all the points (cards won) from the losing challenger.

Dance party - The whole team stands up and takes a 30 second brain break. Music is optional.

SENTENCE WAR DIRECTIONS:

SENTENCE WAR GAMEPLAY DIRECTIONS (2 PLAYERS)

1. Shuffle the cards, then deal them out, dividing the deck evenly between the 2 players.
2. Each player places their cards face down in a stack in front of them.
3. Each player turns a card face up at the same time.
4. The players read both cards to determine if the cards are complete sentences or run-ons.
 - a. If one player has a complete sentence and the other has a run-on, the player with the complete sentence wins the hand, taking both cards and adding them to the bottom of their card stack.
 - b. If both sentences are complete sentences, continue with the next hand until someone wins the round and takes all the cards.
 - c. If both sentences are run-ons, the first person to correctly fix their run-on wins the round and takes both cards. *If a player forgets to capitalize the first word of each sentence, they automatically lose that hand.
5. Continue until one player has won all the cards in the deck and is declared the winner.

PLAYING WITH ACTION CARDS:

While the action cards are not necessary in order to play the game, they do make the game a little more exciting and fun. You'll get . . .

Switch Decks - When a player draws this card, the two players swap decks.

Lose 2 Cards - The player who draws this card must give 2 of their cards to their opponent.

Steal 2 Cards - The player who draws this card steals 2 cards from their opponent.

Dance party - Both players stand up and takes a 30 second brain break. Music is optional but way more fun.
