The Adventures of Lou and Fin

It was actually a lumpy snail with a curly shell.

"Do you mind?" The snail said in a whiny voice. "I'm just trying to find a juicy leaf to eat."

Lou and Fin laughed. By the time they finished their adventure in the cave, it was sunny outside again!

Fluency Passage

Lou and his best friend Fin set out for a walk in the woods, tails wagging and noses sniffing. It was supposed to be a sunny morning. But it felt strangely muggy, and the breezy wind kept changing directions.

"Is it going to be stormy, Fin?" Lou asked, looking at the gray clouds. "Well," Fin grinned, "did you know that if you find something fizzy to drink on a rainy day, you will become lucky?" "Oh wow," Lou wagged his tail, "that sounds fun! Where can we find something fizzy?"

Fin smiled cheekily. "Maybe in that cave?" Lou raced along the dusty trail to the cave, eager for adventure.

"It looks a bit spooky," Lou stopped at the entrance. Fin encouraged his friend, and the two dogs went in together.

"Oh no!" Lou stepped into a muddy puddle. "Look at my messy paws!" He felt a bit grouchy but didn't let it bother him.

"Never mind, there's something shiny over there!" Fin distracted him. Lou's ears pricked up, and he hurried towards the shiny object at the back of the cave.

"It looks like treasure!" Lou jumped over a bumpy rock and nudged the shiny object with his nose.

Suddenly, the object moved! It was actually a lumpy snail with a curly shell.

"Do you mind?" The snail said in a whiny voice. "I'm just trying to find a juicy leaf to eat."

Lou and Fin laughed. By the time they finished their adventure in the cave, it was sunny outside again!
