

Creative Writing Skills

- comic book template
- prompts and ideas to support imagination
- scaffold to help students get started

Motivate Students

- encourage detail in writing
- options to write and draw
- boost confidence for reluctant writers

Engaging Theme

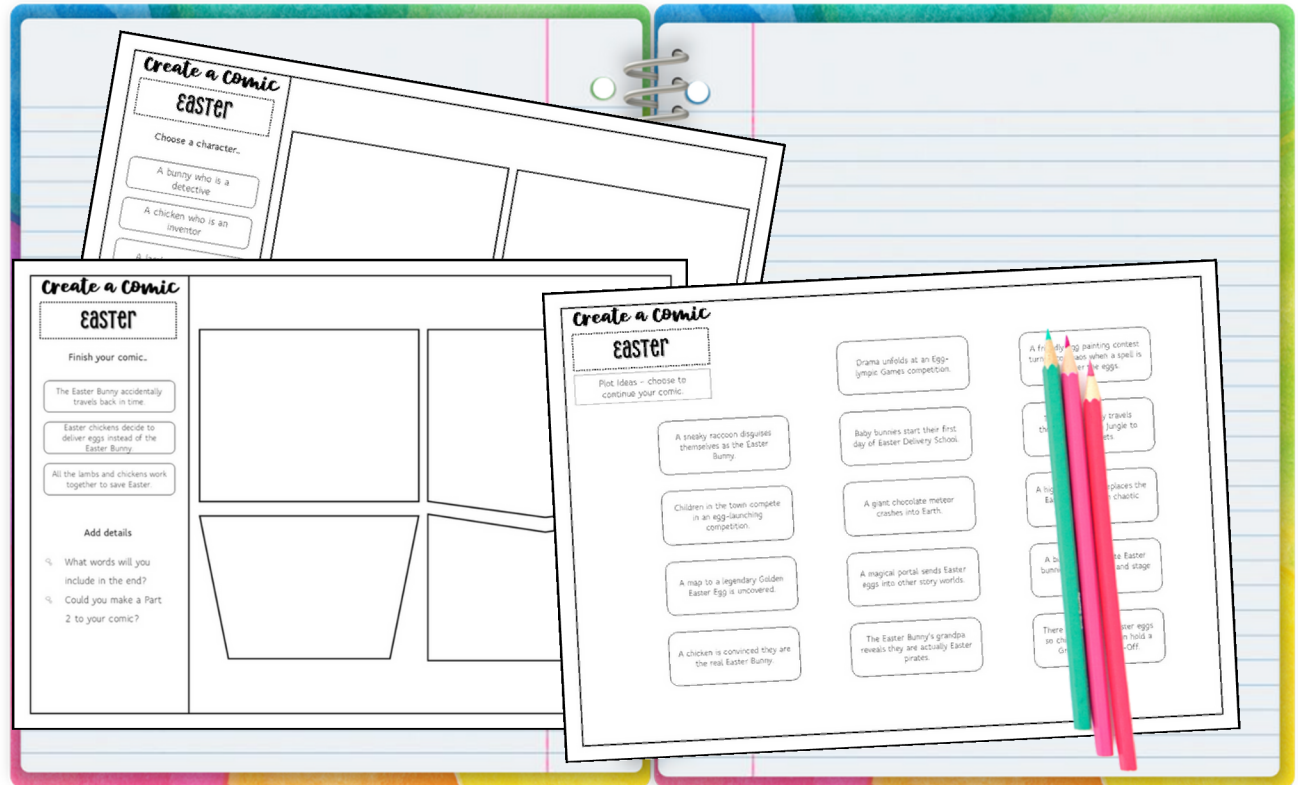

- immerse students in an Easter-themed writing
- lots of plot ideas relating to the theme

The image shows two overlapping worksheets titled "Create a Comic EASTER". The top worksheet has a section "Choose a character." with two options: "A bunny who is a detective" and "A chicken who is a detective". The bottom worksheet has a section "Finish your comic." with three plot ideas: "The Easter Bunny accidentally travels back in time.", "Easter chickens decide to deliver eggs instead of the Easter Bunny.", and "All the lambs and chickens work together to save Easter." Below this is a section "Add details" with two questions: "What words will you include in the end?" and "Could you make a Part 2 to your comic?". Both worksheets feature a grid of four comic panels for drawing.

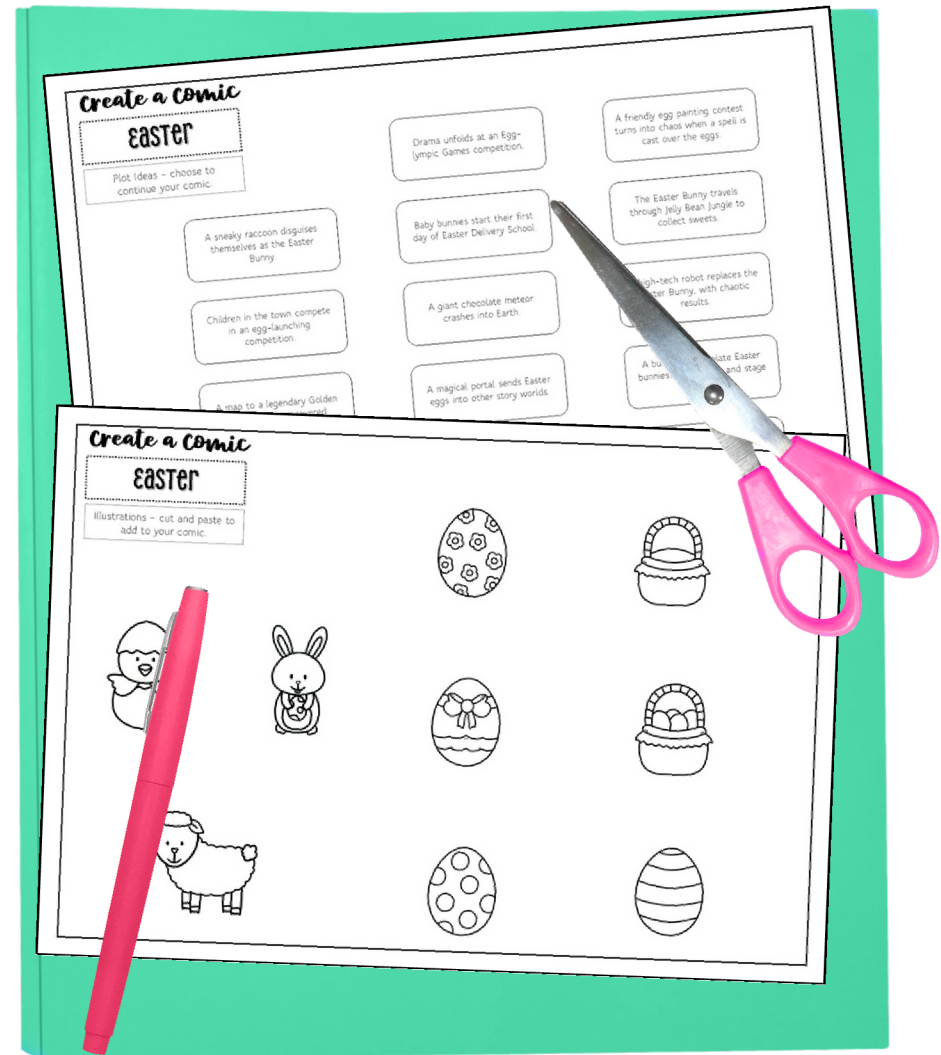

Unique Writing Task

- engage reluctant writers
- offer a creative writing alternative style
- let imagination soar

Extend Imagination

- illustrations to add to the story
- prompt imagination through pictures
- 14 additional plot prompts
- blank template to continue the comic

No Preparation Needed

- ready to print
- great for an independent activity
- easy to use task for early finishers

