

POINT OF VIEW COLOR BY CODE ACTIVITY

SURVIVING in secondary

Read each example and determine which point of view/narrator it demonstrates. Reference the key and color the question number with its matching answer color on the Color by Code sheet.

ANSWER OPTIONS

first person

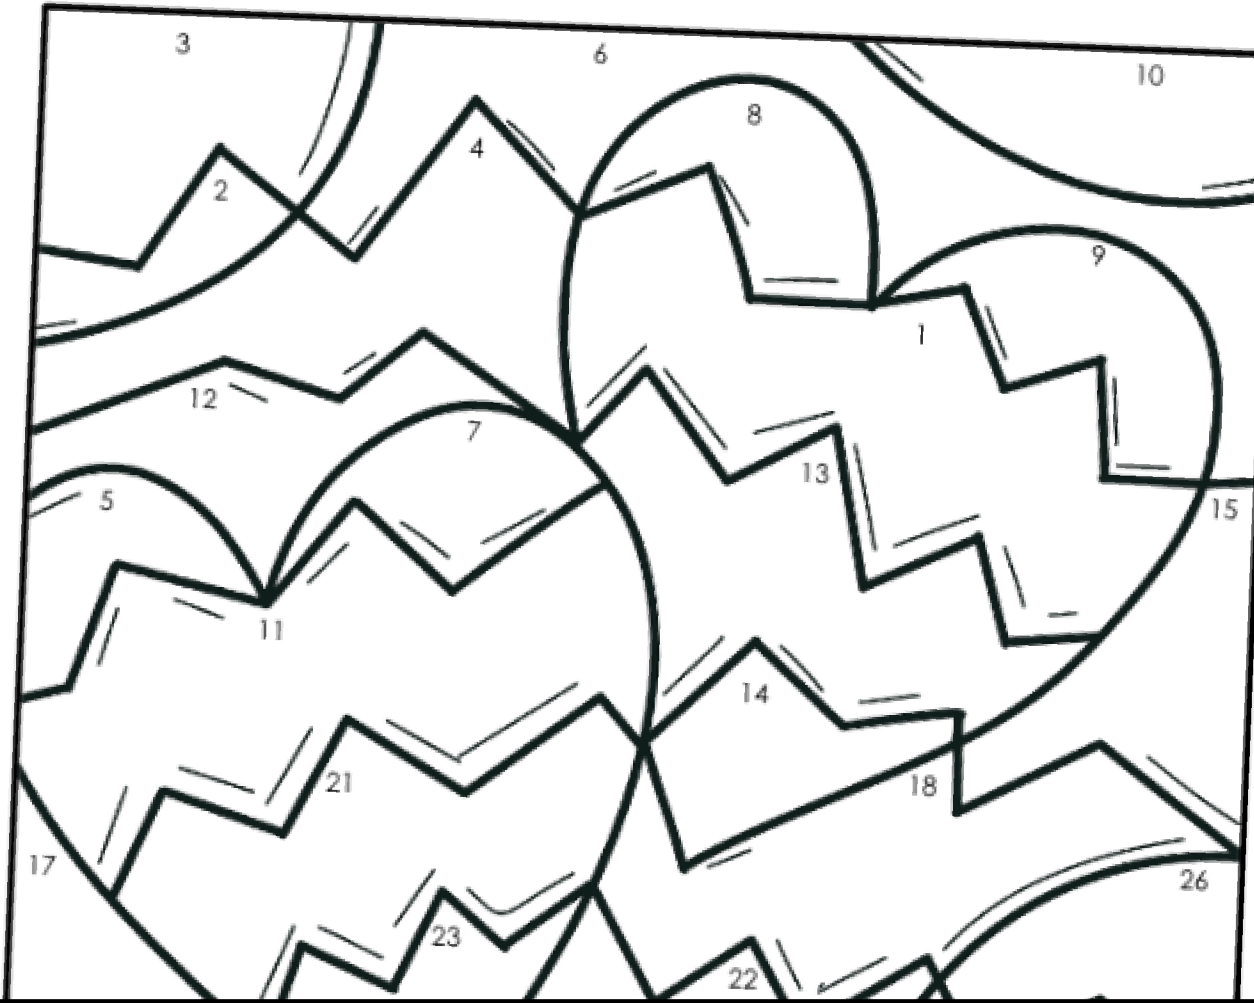

second person

third person limited

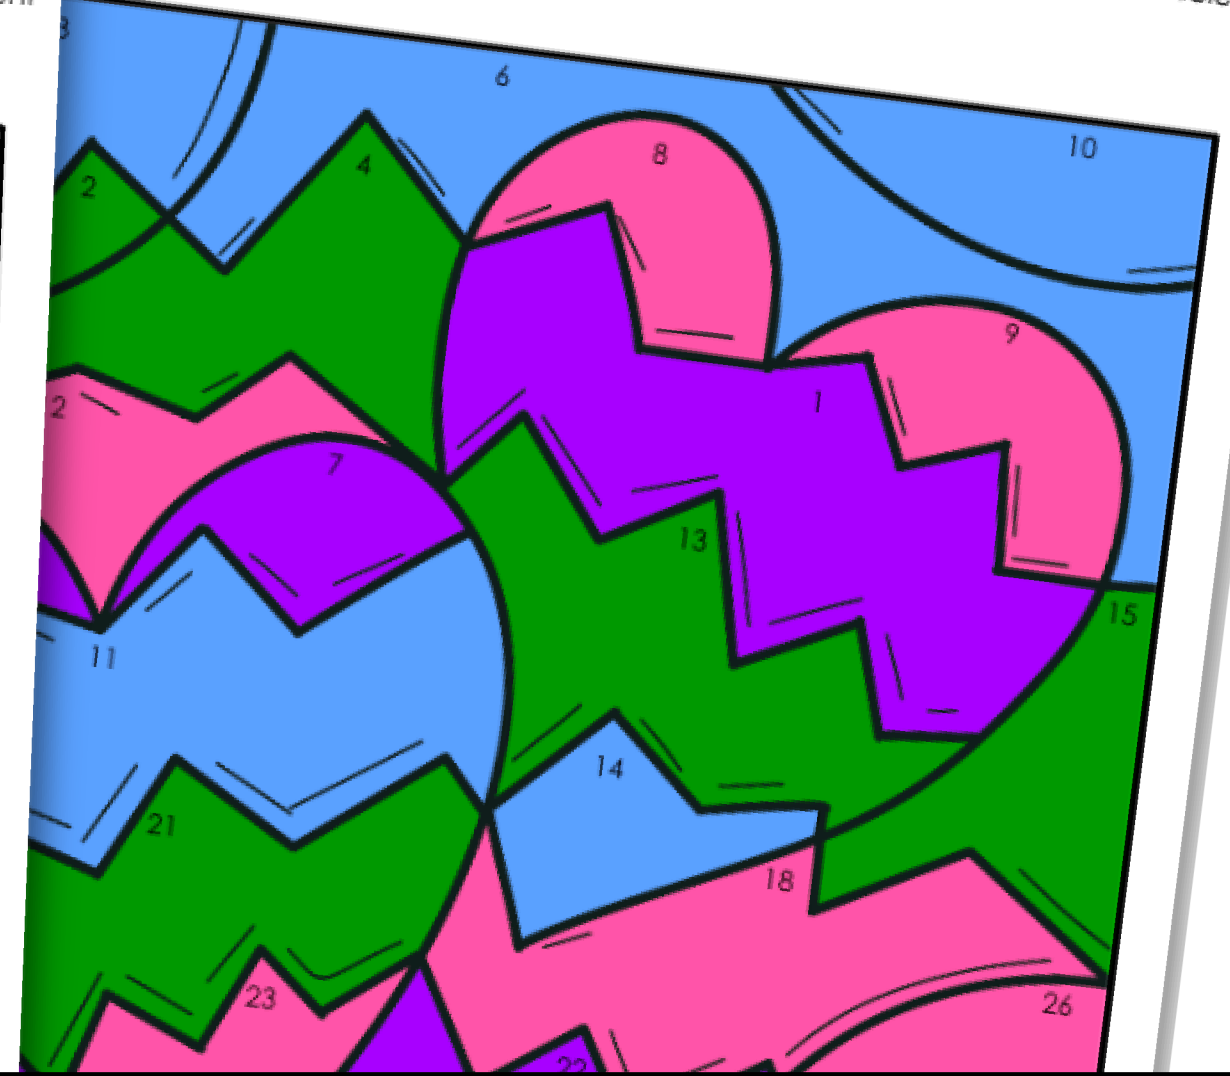

third person omniscient

1. You walk cautiously, unsure of your next step.
2. As she watched students enter the classroom, Ms. Smith wondered how many had done the assigned reading.
3. I listened contentedly to the falling rain.
4. Lucy sat anxiously as she waited for the science fair winners to be announced.
5. Your heart fills with joy as you unwrap the gift.
6. My attention was gripped by the movie.
7. Your thoughts began to race as you considered everything on your to-do list.
8. Ian, engrossed in his video game, remained oblivious to his little sister who stood nearby, eager to join in on the fun.
9. Lia felt lonely at home, unaware that her friends were excitedly preparing for her surprise party at that very moment.
10. Each morning, I write a gratitude list.
11. I don't know what you're talking
12. I was devastated to discover my favorite sweater.
13. I spent hours carefully knitting the new sweater.
14. My dog barked loudly as the mailman approached our front door.
15. "I am so happy for you!" Ann exclaimed.
16. In that moment, nothing mattered to me than my score on the essay.
17. You ran as fast as you could to catch the train before it left the station.
18. As the town's residents slept, the mayor nervously drafted an announcement that would change their lives.
19. Her focus drifted during the lecture.
20. You carefully set the table for the dinner party.
21. Kai was ecstatic when he won the game, while, meanwhile, Eva was disappointed.
22. You take a deep breath before stepping into your speech.
23. Kai was ecstatic when he won the game, while, meanwhile, Eva was disappointed.
24. You take a deep breath before stepping into your speech.
25. "We'll just have to try and make the best of it."

- Blue = 1st person
Green = 3rd person limited
Purple = 2nd person
Pink = 3rd person omniscient

- Blue = 1st person
Green = 3rd person limited
Purple = 2nd person
Pink = 3rd person omniscient

Identify four types of narrative perspective in this 26-question activity! Engage secondary students with a fun & unique Color by Code worksheet.

WHY WILL YOU (AND YOUR STUDENTS) FALL IN LOVE WITH THIS RESOURCE?

- ✓ No-prep
- ✓ Engaging review format
- ✓ Covers key concepts
- ✓ Easy to grade

Answer key included!

COLOR BY CODE: POINT OF VIEW

Blue = 1st person
Green = 3rd person limited

COLOR BY CODE: POINT OF VIEW

Instructions: Read each example and determine which point of view/narrative perspective it demonstrates. Reference the key and color the question number with its matching answer color on the Color by Code sheet.

| ANSWER OPTIONS       |                         |
|----------------------|-------------------------|
| first person         | second person           |
| third person limited | third person omniscient |

1. You walk cautiously, unsure of your next step.
2. As she watched students enter the classroom, Ms. Smith wondered how many had done the assigned reading.
3. I listened contentedly to the falling rain.
4. Lucy sat anxiously as she waited for the science fair winners to be announced.
5. Your heart fills with joy as you unwrap the gift.
6. My attention was gripped by the movie.
7. Your thoughts began to race as you considered everything on your to-do list.
8. Ian, engrossed in his video game, remained oblivious to his little sister who stood nearby, eager to join in on the fun.
9. Lia felt lonely at home, unaware that her friends were excitedly preparing for her surprise party at that very moment.
10. Each morning, I write a gratitude list.
11. "You don't know what you're talking about!" I shouted at my sister.
12. Mae and Erin both felt immense pride as they saw their months of hard work pay off.
13. Jake's heart pounded as he attempted to make a goal in the game's final seconds.
14. My dog barked loudly as the mailman approached our front door.
15. "I am so happy for you!" Ann exclaimed.
16. In that moment, nothing mattered to me than my score on the essay.
17. You ran as fast as you could to catch the train before it left the station.
18. As the town's residents slept blissfully, the mayor nervously drafted an announcement that would change their lives.
19. I spent hours carefully knitting a blanket.
20. I was devastated to discover a rip in my favorite sweater.
21. Her focus drifted during the dull lecture.
22. You carefully set the table in preparation for the dinner party.
23. Kai was ecstatic when he saw the results; meanwhile, Eva was appalled by the results.
24. You take a deep breath before launching into your speech.
25. "We'll just have to try again tomorrow," she said in a hushed tone to her friends.
26. The principal's words were a mix of encouragement and criticism.

SURVIVING in secondary