Each clue page gives students a hint of what they are looking for and a link to a resource to find the answer.

Teacher guide and instructions

Detailed guide on how to play and what key unlocks each lock. Give your students support as necessary based on time and ability. You have the answer key - give students as much or as little help as they need to complete the task.

Home page

When students open the home page, they will see a map of Eurasia with images of the women. To get to the other clues, they will need to click on the images of the women. When they scroll over a link, the hand icon will show up and it will be clickable. Note: if you aren't seeing the hands, check your browser! Google Chrome doesn't always display the hands, depending upon which version you are using. Firefox and Safari work better for this activity. If you have no option other than Chrome, just tell students to click on the women.

Ada Lovelace

On the Ada Lovelace page, clicking on her tiara will take students to a biography of looking or the name of the mentor who inspired her - BABBAGE - which will open
