Battle of Gettysburg

This page will show an image of a horse and cart. Once they are logged in, they must be logged in to:

The first question on the spreadsheet will be the word 'Pennsylvania' is the first word. They should click on the link, as it will be clickable.

They will need to find:

The number of Union soldiers
The number of Confederate soldiers

The spreadsheet will do the math for them. The lock combination is 160841. If they enter the formula in any of the cells, the spreadsheet will open a new window.

Home page

When students open the home page, you will see a header image, and an image of Nicolas Cage - who has stolen the Declaration of Independence!

To get to the other clues, they will need to scroll their mouse over the image. There are five links hidden in the image. When they scroll over a hidden link, the hand icon will show up and it will be clickable.

The links are hidden over the words:

Cage's eyes
his ear his mouth
the microphone

Roosevelt's Address to Congress

On the Roosevelt slide, clicking on the microphone will lead to a page with his speech to Congress. They are looking for the word INFAMY, which will open the 6-digit lock.

Saturday Night Massacre

On the Saturday Night Massacre slide, students will see a photo of a man (Archibald Cox). Clicking on his tie will take them to an article about the Saturday Night Massacre. They are looking for the name of the special prosecutor, COX, which will unlock the 3-letter lock.

Kent State

On this page, students will need to click on the face of one of the onlookers. This will take them to a short video about selective service statuses. They are looking for the different draft statuses, which will unlock the 4-letter lock (1A4F).
