Museum Mystery Escape Room

Read the story starter and get ready for a narrative writing adventure! Complete the puzzles and tasks on each page to continue writing the Maritime Museum Mystery story.

The Maritime Museum held treasures that had been found across the seven seas. Ancient maps, sailor uniforms, and ship models filled the echoing halls. All the artifacts were items with tales and mysteries from time spent at sea.

One rainy afternoon, Max and Emily visited the museum. Normally, the Maritime Museum sounded boring, but not today!

All week at school, they had heard rumors and stories of a new exhibition at the museum - the Ghost Ship! They had to see this mysterious display for themselves

Narrative Writing Museum Mystery Escape Room

Emily picked up the map. It had directions leading to the lighthouse, not far from the Maritime Museum.

Max and Emily knew this map would help them find the Ghost Ship and return the compass to the crew.

They followed the map and reached the lighthouse as the sun was setting.

Narrative Writing Museum Mystery Escape Room

As Max and Emily walked into the museum, they could immediately smell the salty air.

It felt like being at the beach with sand and seaweed on the shoreline.

All around the room, there were artefacts, trinkets, and ruins that had been collected from shipwrecks.
