Home page

When students open the home page, you will see a header image and an image of a painting of people walking to the cemetery with flowers. The setting for the story is explained and there is a form where the clues are entered. By clicking on the areas that are red below (they are not red on the website, but will turn a shaded white color when moused-over), students will be taken to pages that will help them to find the keys to unlock the locks.
