

HAIR REMOVAL SELF-CHECKING ACTIVITY

Scroll down for instructions, terms of use, credits, & more!

Hair Removal: A Self-Checking Practice.

Directions: Answer the Questions. If you are correct, your answer will turn green. If incorrect, it will turn red and you will need to try again.

Definition or Process	Answers
1 Removing hair by destroying the growth cells of the hair using an electric current.	Shaving
2 Temporary removing hair from the bottom of the follicle. Wax is one example.	sugaring
3 Best for sensitive skin, this temporary hair removal uses a thick sugar-based paste.	laser hair removal
4 Using tweezers to remove hair, common around the eye brow, or in addition to waxing.
5 Pulsing a laser beam on the skin to stop hair growth.
6 Excessive hair growth.
7 Using intensive light to destroy hair growth cells.
8 Typically a caustic alkali preparation that dissolves superficial hairs.
9 Temporary removing hair by using cotton thread against the skin.	Threading
10 Before waxing a client undergoing chemotherapy, a client should get written permission from their...	Nurse

