

WRITING PROMPTS

Narrative

Narrative Writing Prompts
Instructions: Pick a prompt to write your narrative.
Snow days are a magical surprise. Describe what you would do on a snow day. Use your imagination and add details to include what you would see, hear, smell, do, and who would be with you.	Recall the best day at school. What happened that made the day stand out in your memory? Write a story for a friend that tells what happened on this day at school.	Pretend you are a dog or a cat. Think of three things you would do as this animal. Tell the story from the dog's or cat's point of view and include the three things you would do. Use your imagination and voice.	You and a friend spend the day exploring the woods near your house. It starts to get dark, and you think you are lost. Use your imagination and describe how you and your friend find your way home. Be descriptive!
You have just been shrunk down to the size of an ant. Write a story describing the good and bad things about being so small. Your story should have a beginning, middle, and end.	"You must do the thing you think you cannot do." - Eleanor Roosevelt Write a narrative about a time you did something you thought you could not do. Be sure to include specific details and events for the reader.	You have made a very important discovery - one that will make you famous throughout the world. Write a story in which you tell about your discovery and how you made it. Include details about the setting, characters, problems that happen, and how it ends.	Think about a story you have recently read. Could the story have had a different or better ending? Rewrite the ending of the story.
Write a story titled "The Luckiest Day"	Pretend you are a teacher for the day. Write a story about the changes you would make if you were a teacher for the day.	Suppose you were given three wishes but could not use them on yourself. Tell a story about what you would wish for and why.	Think about your favorite character from a book or movie. Tell a story about getting to meet this character for the first time.
Have you ever been proud of yourself for trying or learning something new? Write about the experience. How did you motivate yourself to do what you thought you could not do? Did someone help you?	Write about a time when you were so excited you could not wait. Why were you excited? What was the event?	Have you ever done something you knew would get you in trouble? Tell about the experience. What did you do? How did you feel about it?	Imagine you visited the zoo and could take any animal home for the day. Tell a story about your day together.
You can only keep one memory about your family; which memory do you choose? Write about that memory.	This morning you wake up, and you are 20 feet tall! What will you do all day?	Write about a time you lost something important. What was it, and how did you react?	Imagine you have a fantastic sense of smell. What would you use it for? What will you smell?

TASK CARDS +
FULL-PAGE
EDITABLE PPT

Narrative

Think about your favorite character from a book or movie.
Tell a story about getting to meet this character for the first time.

© Annotated ELA 2023

annotated
ELA

EDITABLE PPT TASK CARDS

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

What will you do all day?
This morning you woke up, and you are 20 feet tall!

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

What would you use it for? What will you smell?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

fantastic sense of

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write about a time when you were so excited you could not wait.
Why were you excited? What was the event?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write about the experience. How did you motivate yourself to do what you thought you could not do? Did someone help you?
Have you ever been proud of yourself for trying or learning something new?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Have you ever done something you would get you in trouble?
Tell about the experience. How did you feel?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write a story about the changes you would make if you were a teacher for the day.
Pretend you are a teacher for the day.

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write a story about your day together.
The zoo and could take the day.

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write about a time when you were so excited you could not wait.
Why were you excited? What was the event?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Write about a time important.
What was it, and how did it feel?

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

You can only keep one memory about your family, which memory do you choose?
Write about that memory.

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Think about your favorite character from a book or movie.
Tell a story about getting to meet this character for the first time.

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

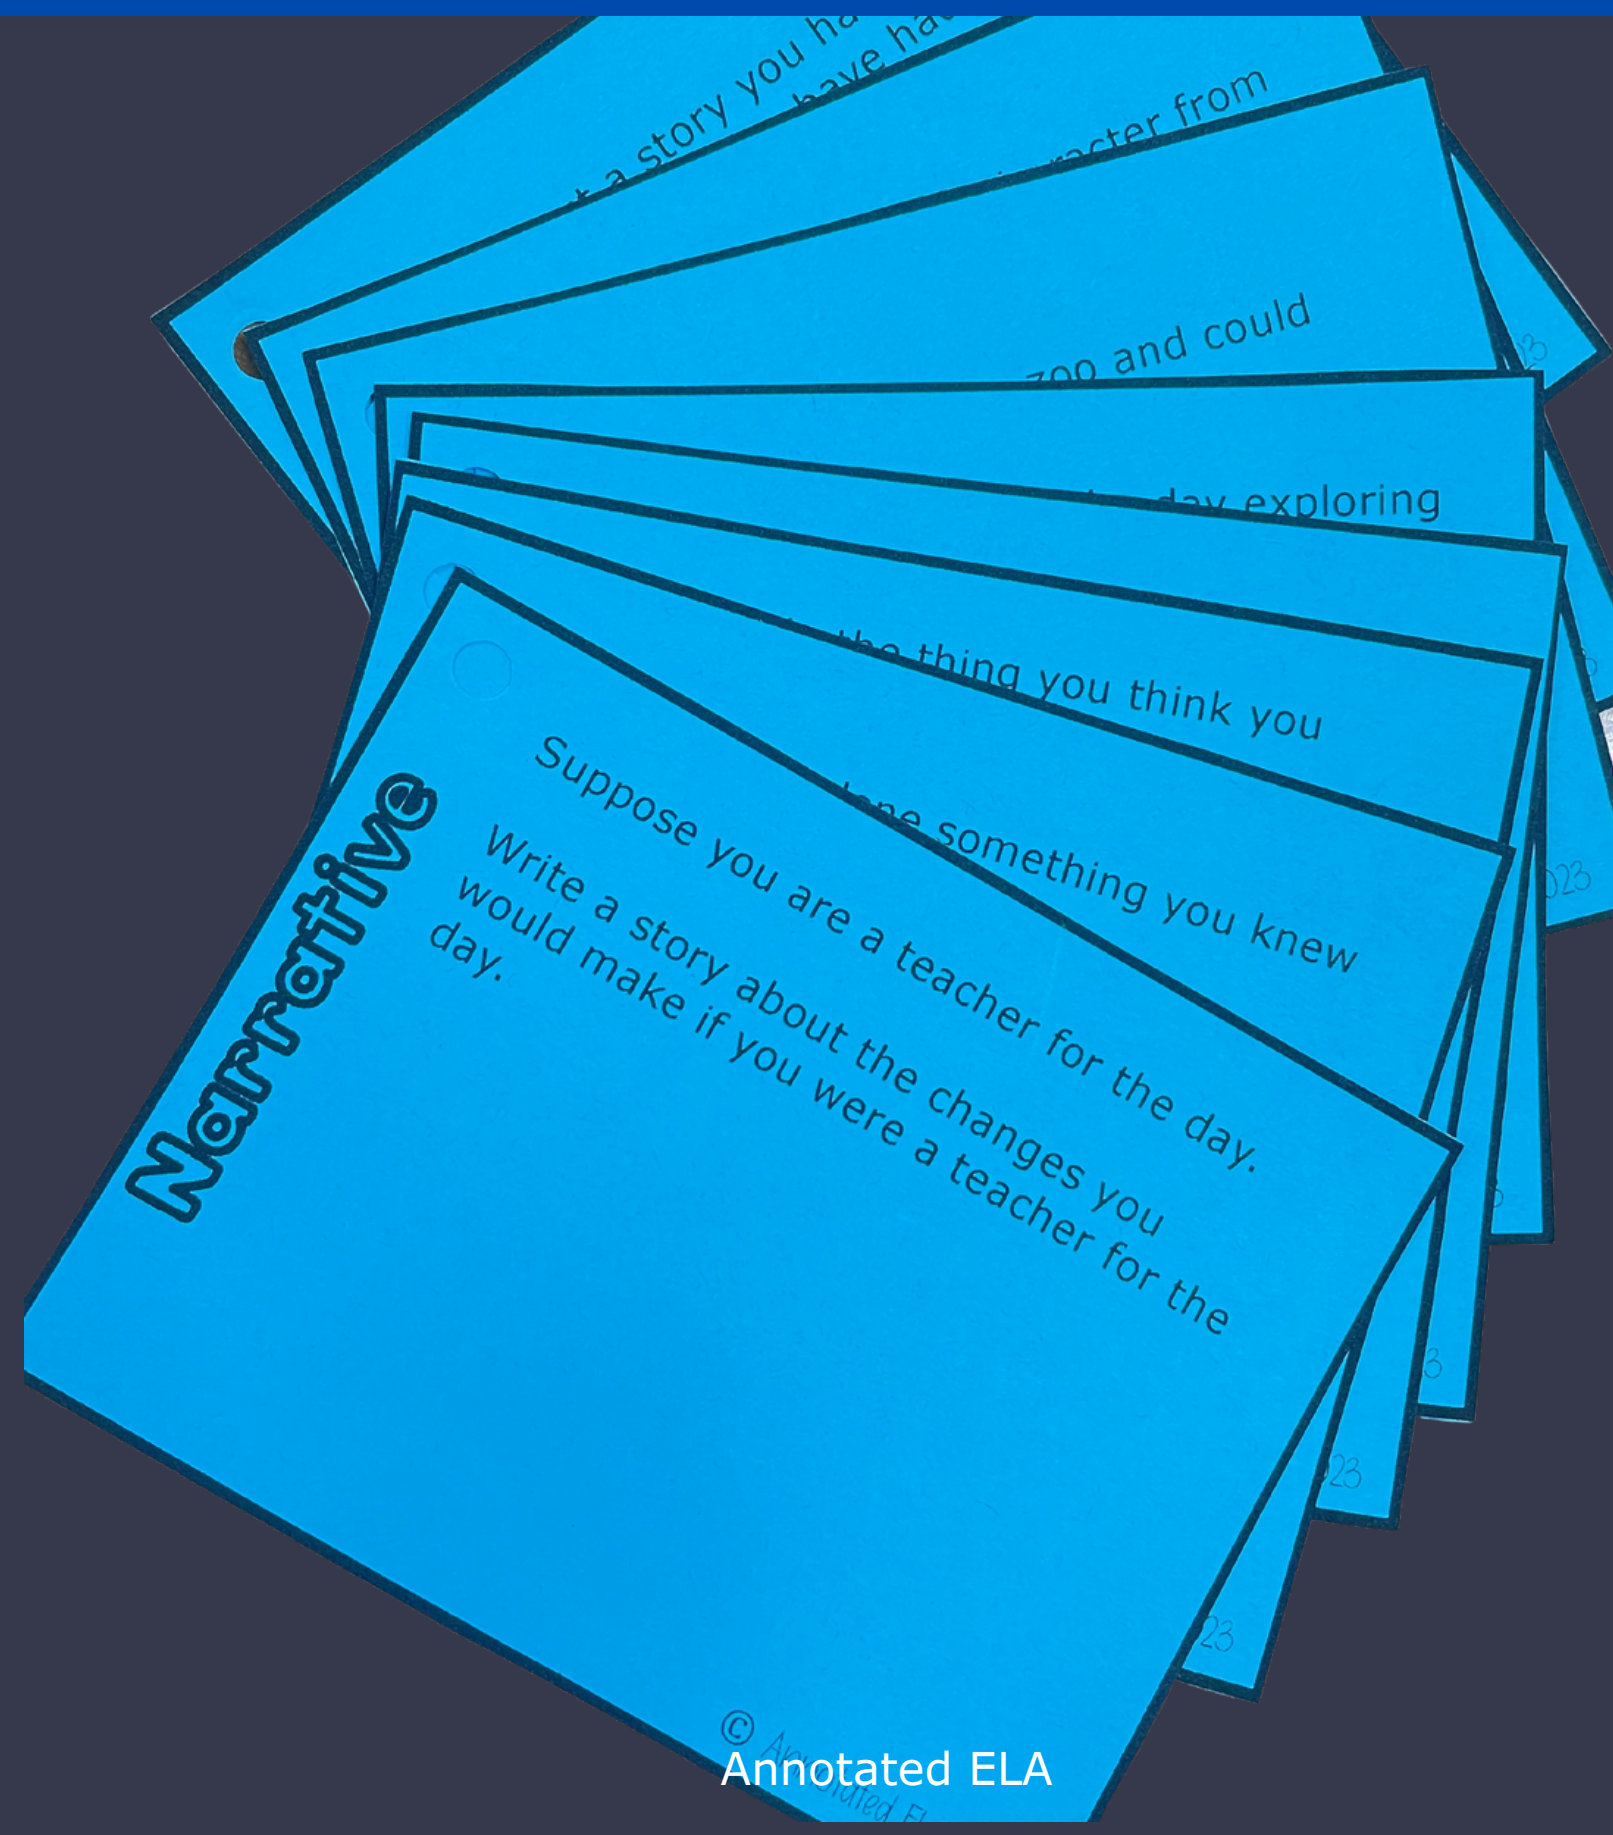

Write a story titled "The Luckiest Day"

Narrative

© Annotated ELA 2023

Suppose you were given three wishes but could not use them on yourself.
Tell a story about what you would wish for and why.

PDF TASK CARDS

WHOLE PAGE OF 20 PROMPTS

Narrative Writing Prompts

Instructions: Pick a prompt to write your narrative.

© Annotated ELA 2023

Snow days are a magical surprise. Describe what you would do on a snow day. Use your imagination and add details to include what you would see, hear, smell, do, and who would be with you.	Recall the best day at school. What happened that made this day stand out in your memory? Write a story for a friend that tells what happened on this day at school.	Pretend you are a dog or a cat. Think of three things you would do as this animal. Tell the story from the dog's or cat's point of view and include the three things you would do. Use your imagination and voice.	You and a friend spend the day exploring the woods near your house. It starts to get dark, and you think you are lost. Use your imagination and describe how you and your friend find your way home. Be descriptive!
You have just been shrunk down to the size of an ant. Write a story describing the good and bad things about being so small. Your story should have a beginning, middle, and end.	"You must do the thing you think you cannot do." - Eleanor Roosevelt Write a narrative about a time you did something you thought you could not do. Be sure to include specific details and events for the reader.	You have made a very important discovery – one that will make you famous throughout the world. Write a story in which you tell about your discovery and how you made it. Include details about the setting, characters, problems that happen, and how it ends.	Think about a story you have recently read. Could the story have had a different or better ending? Rewrite the ending of the story.
Write a story titled "The Luckiest Day"	Pretend you are a teacher for the day. Write a story about the changes you would make if you were a teacher for the day.	Suppose you were given three wishes but could not use them on yourself. Tell a story about what you would wish for and why.	Think about your favorite character from a book or movie. Tell a story about getting to meet this character for the first time.
Have you ever been proud of yourself for trying or learning something new? Write about the experience. How did you motivate yourself to do what you thought you could not do? Did someone help you?	Write about a time when you were so excited you could not wait. Why were you excited? What was the event?	Have you ever done something you knew would get you in trouble? Tell about the experience. What did you do? How did you feel about it?	Imagine you visited the zoo and could take any animal home for the day. Tell a story about your day together.
You can only keep one memory about your family; which memory do you choose? Write about that memory.	This morning you woke up, and you are 20 feet tall! What will you do all day?	Write about a time you lost something important. What was it, and how did you react?	Imagine you have a fantastic sense of smell. What would you use it for? What will you smell?