Facts About Easter

Easter is an important festival celebrated by Christians. Christians celebrate Jesus rising from the dead, three days after he was executed.

Some people who are not Christians celebrate Easter as the start of Spring.

Today, an important part is giving and eating eggs.

Eggs represent new life, and this ancient custom has become a part of Easter celebrations.

Eating eggs during Lent (40 days before Easter) was forbidden in the medieval period. Everyone enjoyed eating eggs on Easter Sunday.

The first chocolate egg was made in England in 1873.

Pretzels are popular during Easter - a pretzel looks like arms folded in prayer.

In the US, an Easter Egg Roll is held on the lawn of the White House.

In Australia, the Bilby delivers Easter gifts.

In Norway, the homes are decorated with Easter chickens.

REVIEWS — REINDEER BOARD GAME

“After the students made their games, I made them explain the rules. This was great for practicing clarity, logical order, and oral skills.”

“My students love games. This was a sneaky way to get them to learn some facts about reindeer.”
