

website for game play

STUDENTS WILL ACCESS THE GAME IN THEIR BROWSER - NO PREP FOR YOU,
JUST SHARE THE URL!

Black History Month

The local history museum is going to be hosting an exhibition of items related to African-American history. The prize item is an original speech handwritten by Martin Luther King, Jr. It is locked inside a special travel case so that it can't be damaged or stolen while being shipped. Unfortunately, the courier lost his list of the combinations that open the locks! But he does remember that they all had to do with famous African-Americans. Can you figure out what the missing codes are and unlock the box?

Black History Month

 lovebugsphotography@gmail.com
(not shared) Switch account

* Required

teacher guide and instructions

DETAILED GUIDE ON HOW TO PLAY AND WHAT KEY UNLOCKS EACH LOCK. GIVE YOUR STUDENTS SUPPORT AS NECESSARY
BASED ON TIME AND ABILITY.

Undersea Killers

On the Undersea Killers page they will need to click on the button about World War I submarines. The answer for this clue is 1915.

Home page

When students open the home page, you will see a header image, and a letter to the great-grandchildren and a form where students will enter the combinations to open the lock.

To get to the other clues, they will need to read the letter while scrolling their mouse over it. There are five links hidden in the letter. When they scroll over a hidden link, the hand icon will show up and it will be clickable.

The links are hidden over the words:
great-grandchildren
leaving you this medal
I want you to understand
such a war again
Love, your great grandfather

To all my great-grandchildren:

It has been many years since I fought in the Great War, but those memories will never fade. So many of my friends left for Europe and never came back. Some of them came back, but weren't the same men as when they left.

I am leaving you this medal. It is to be shared and used as a reminder to you all that sometimes, duty calls and we must answer. I don't believe that I am a hero, and this medal is cherished not because of how I earned it, but because it reminds me of my friends and fellow soldiers who didn't return home.

I want you to understand what this medal really means. I've locked it up safely in a box. In order to open it, you'll need to find the codes to open the lock. I hope you'll learn something and be able to understand what it was like for those of us who fought in the Great War, and why we hoped never to see such a war again.

Love,
Your great-grandfather

topics included:

Ruby Bridges

On the Ruby Bridges slide, clicking on her dress will take students to a youtube video with an interview of Ruby. They are listening for the date when she first attended the school, 11/14/1960 - which will open the date lock.

copyright © 2018 Heather Frackiewicz

Shirley Chisholm

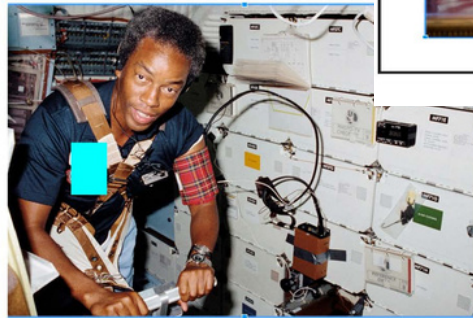

On the Shirley Chisholm page, clicking on her face will take students to an article about Shirley and her candidacy for president. They are looking for the year 1972, which will open the 4-digit lock.

Guion S. Bluford,

On the Bluford slide, clicking on his NASA patch will open a google spreadsheet asked to make a copy of the spreadsheet, so they must be logged in to Gma work properly. Once they have made a copy, they will see the following questions:
The first space shuttle he flew in was the:
Year he was born
Year he graduated from Penn State
Number of experiments performed on Spacelab in 1985
Number of hours he spent in space
Year he joined NASA
Number of combat missions he flew

Upon typing in the name "Challenger" for the first question (they should do answer), a URL will pop up for a page with the answer to the other question: the calculations and give the final answer of 2636875, which will open the 7-

copyright © 2018 Heather Frackiewicz

Martin Luther King, Jr

On the slide of Martin Luther King, Jr students will click on his face. This will take them to a page with information about the philosophy of the civil rights movement led by Dr. King. Students are looking for the word NONVIOLENCE, which will open the 11-letter lock.

Barack Obama

On the Obama slide, students will click on the materials on his desk. This will take them to a page with the text of a speech given by Obama on the anniversary of "Bloody Sunday." Students are looking for the word SELMA, which will open the 5-letter lock.

copyright © 2018 Heather Frackiewicz

