NATIVE AMERICAN HISTORICAL FIGURES

WILL ROGERS

Birth Date: November 4, 1879

Death Date: August 15, 1935

Birth Place: Rogers County, Oklahoma

Native American Tribe: Cherokee Nation

Accomplishments: He was an American vaudeville performer, actor, and social commentator. As an entertainer, he traveled around the world making 71 films and writing more than 4,000 newspaper columns. By the mid-1930s, he became popular in the U.S. for his political wit and was the highest paid Hollywood film star. He was able to joke about gangsters, politicians and controversial topics in such a way that no one was offended. He also played a large role in campaigning for the expansion of aviation in the United States.

POCAHONTAS

Birth Date: 1596

Death Date: March, 1617

Birth Place: Jamestown, Virginia

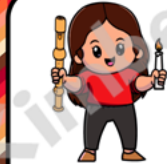

Native American Tribe: Powhatan

Accomplishments: She helped to make peace between Native Americans and English colonists. She was the daughter of Powhatan, a powerful chief. She was captured by English colonists and held for ransom in 1613. During her captivity, she was baptized as a Christian and married a tobacco planter named John Rolfe. In 1616, she travelled to London and was presented to English society as an example of the "civilized savage" in hopes of generating investment in the Jamestown settlement. Many places, landmarks, and products in America have been named after Pocahontas.

CRAZY HORSE

Birth Date: ~1840-1845

Death Date: September 5, 1877

Birth Place: Rapid Creek, South Dakota

Native American Tribe: Lakota

Accomplishments: He was a Lakota war leader of the Oglala band in the 19th century. He fought against the United States federal government to stand up against invasion by white American settlers on Native American territory. He also fought to preserve the traditional way of life of the Lakota people. He fought in several famous battles of the Black Hills War, including the Fetterman Fight in 1866 and the Battle of the Little Bighorn in 1876, in which he led a war party to victory. This earned him great respect from his enemies and the Lakota people.
