

Primary Sources

Original documents/objects/artifacts created at the time or place.

Secondary Sources

Accounts that retell, analyze events, usually at a later time or place.

Primary Sources

Secondary Sources

List some examples.

List some examples.

Primary Sources

Original documents/objects/artifacts created at the time or place.

Secondary Sources

Accounts that retell, analyze events, usually at a later time or place.

Primary Sources

Secondary Sources

List some examples.

List some examples.

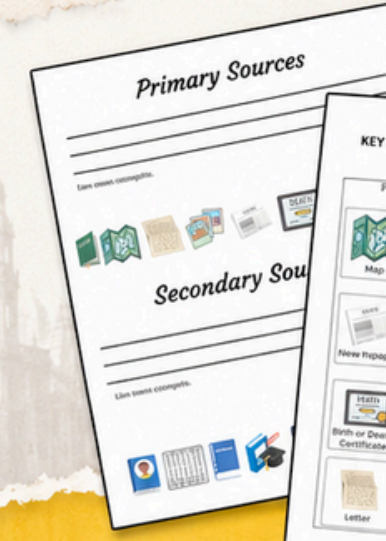

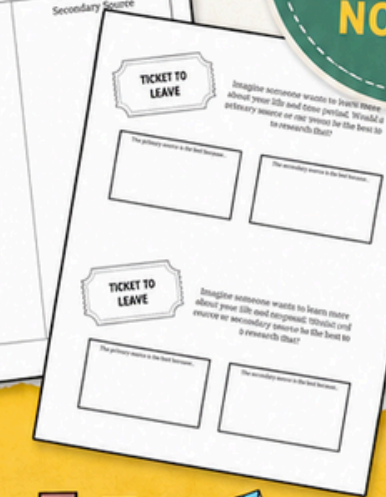

Primary

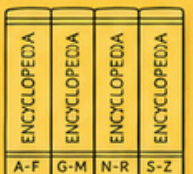

VS.

Secondary

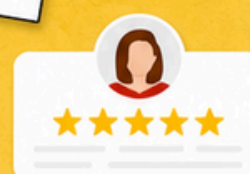

An introduction.

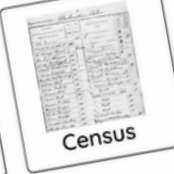

ENGAGING ACTIVITIES • CRITICAL THINKING • READY TO TEACH

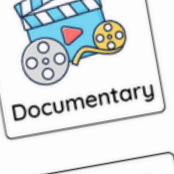

SOURCES SORT

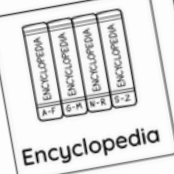

Cut out the cards. Sort them into groups - primary sources and secondary sources.

TICKET TO LEAVE

Imagine someone wants to learn more about you! List two primary sources and one secondary source that could be used to research you.

Two primary sources about you.

One secondary source about you.

Lesson plan, vocabulary posters, student pages, sorting activity & ticket to leave.