

CLARK THE SHARK

BACKYARD ACADEMY

A PEEK INSIDE THE PRODUCT

MY CLARK THE SHARK BOOK REVIEW

Draw the main character of the book.

Who was the author?

Who was the illustrator?

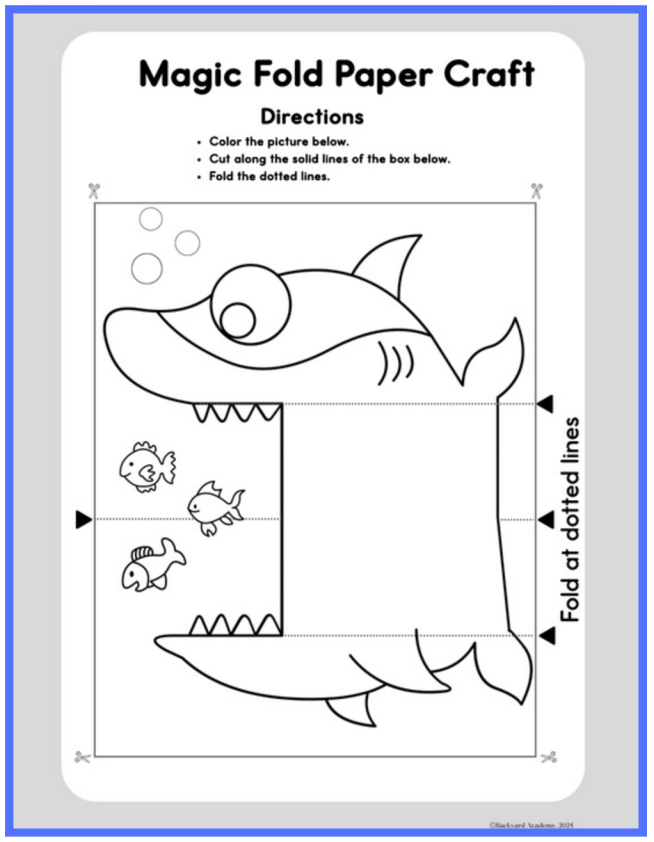

The book's setting was...

The characters of the book:

What I Learned:

What I Thought:

MY RATING

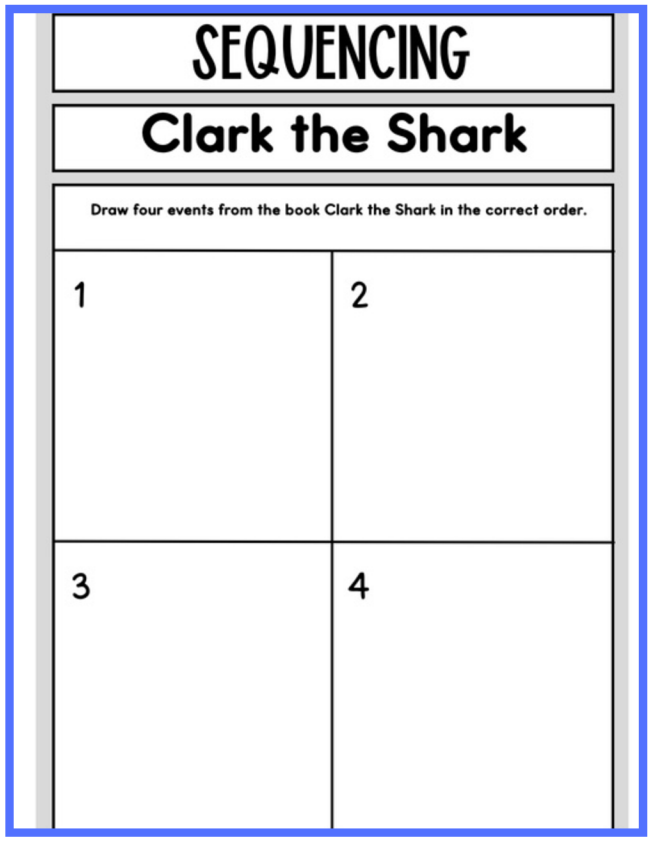

Magic Fold Paper Craft

Directions

- Color the picture below.
- Cut along the solid lines of the box below.
- Fold the dotted lines.

Fold at dotted lines

SEQUENCING

Clark the Shark

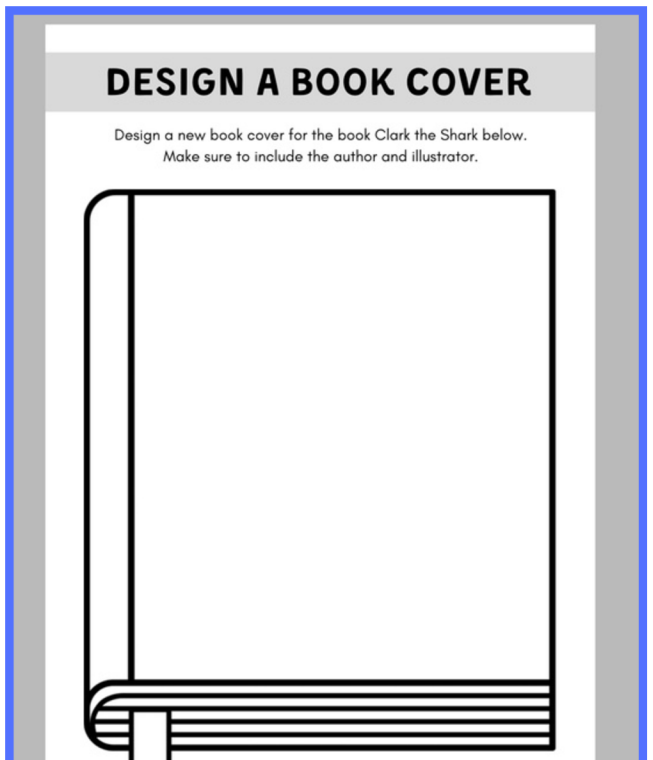

Draw four events from the book Clark the Shark in the correct order.

1

2

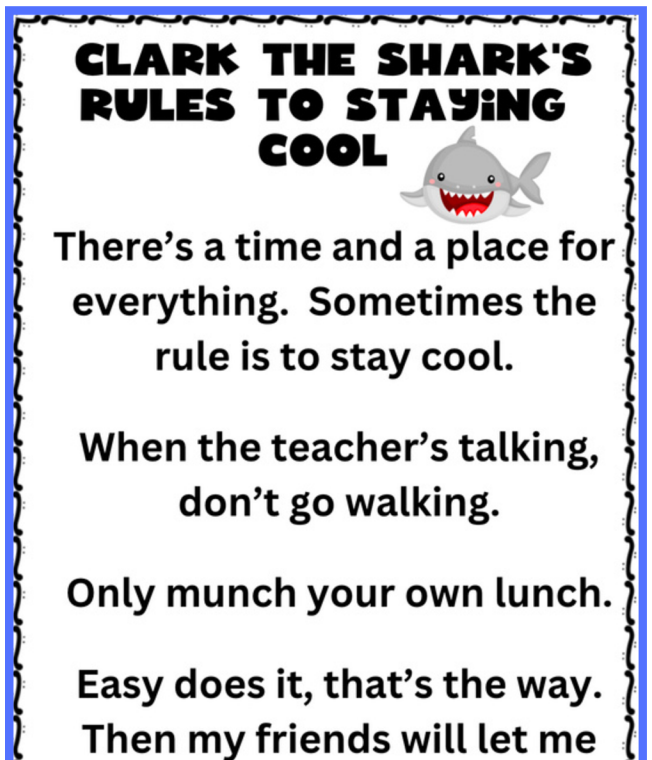

3

4

DESIGN A BOOK COVER

Design a new book cover for the book Clark the Shark below.
Make sure to include the author and illustrator.

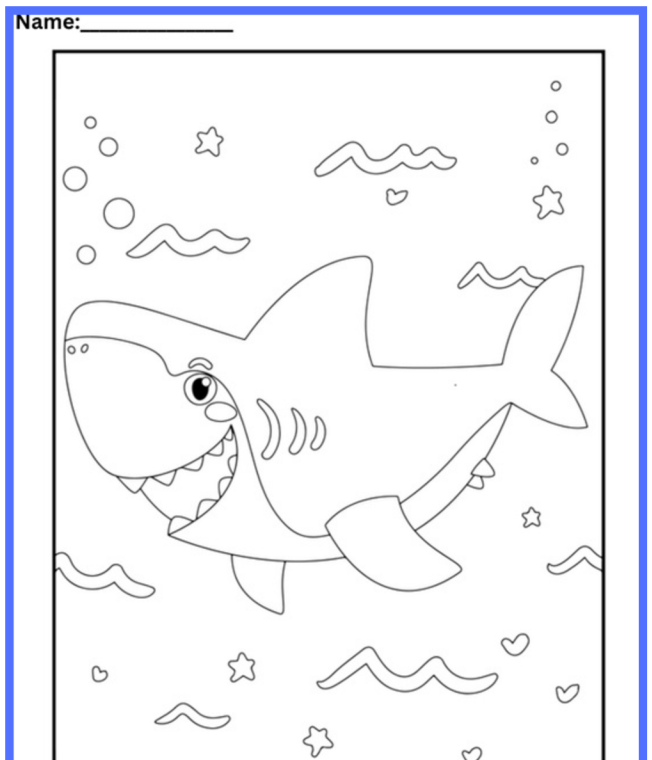

CLARK THE SHARK'S RULES TO STAYING COOL

There's a time and a place for everything. Sometimes the rule is to stay cool.

When the teacher's talking, don't go walking.

Only munch your own lunch.

Easy does it, that's the way. Then my friends will let me

Name:_____

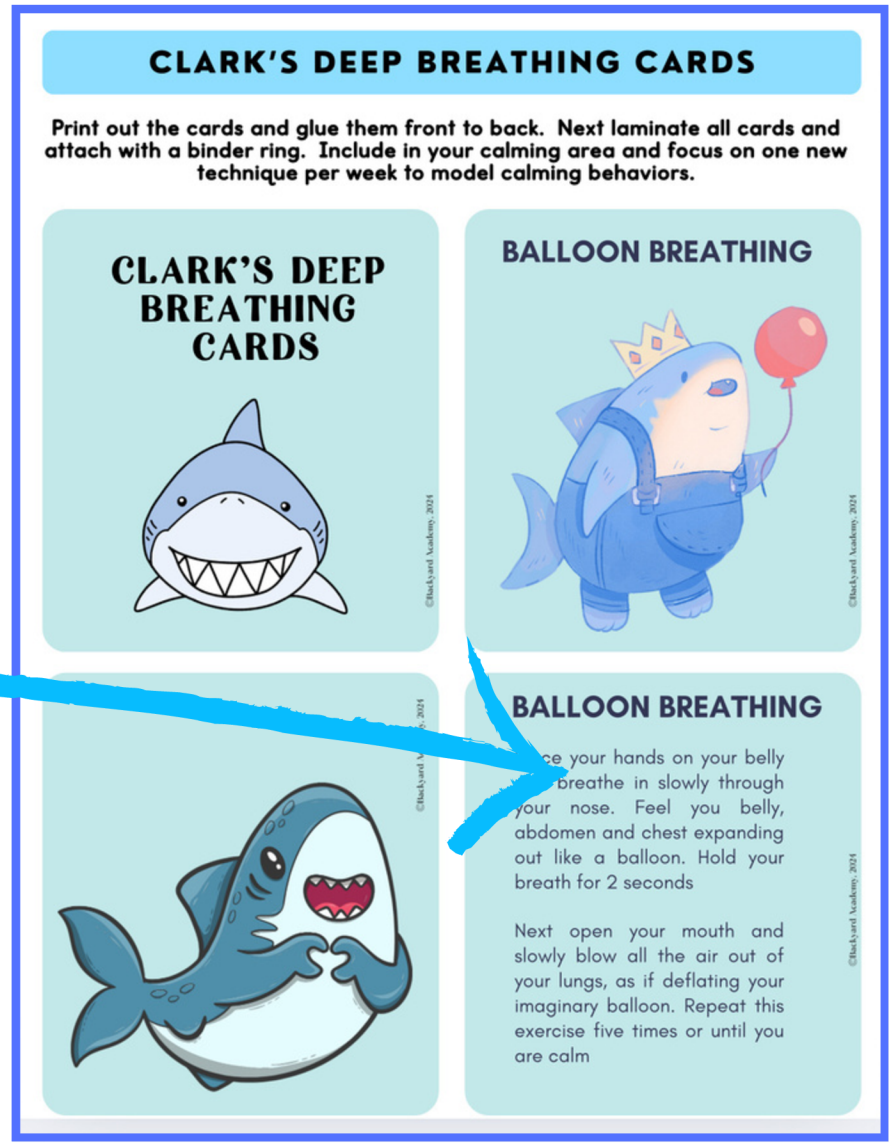

A CLOSER LOOK

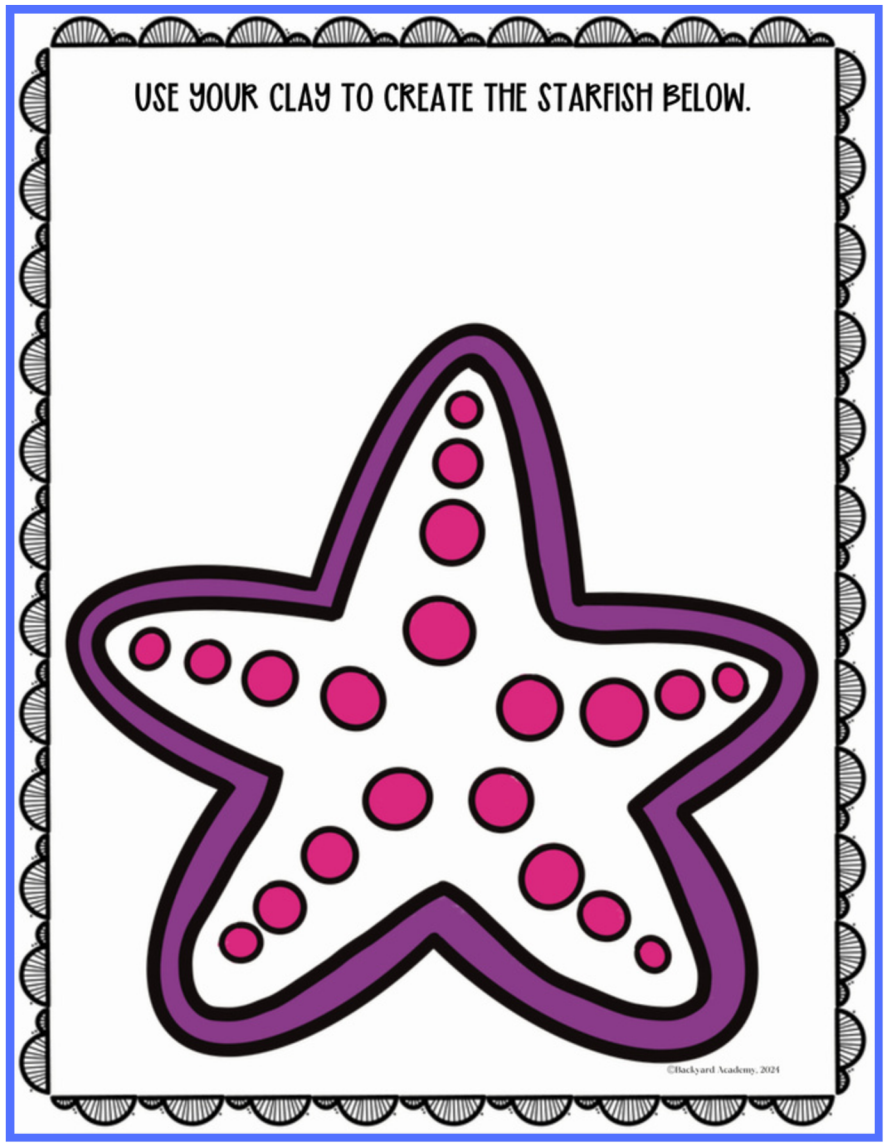

CLARK THE SHARK DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Was Clark trying to be bad? How do you know?
- Clark was too much shark. What are some of the things that he did that made him too much shark?
- What did Mrs. Inkydink tell Clark when he asked what was wrong with everyone?
- What is the rhyme that Clark thought of about walking?
- What is the rule Clark made about lunch?
- What is the rule Clark made about playtime?
- What did Sid the Squid do when he came to school?
- What did Clark tell his mom about what he learned?
- Have you ever felt like you were too much shark like Clark was?

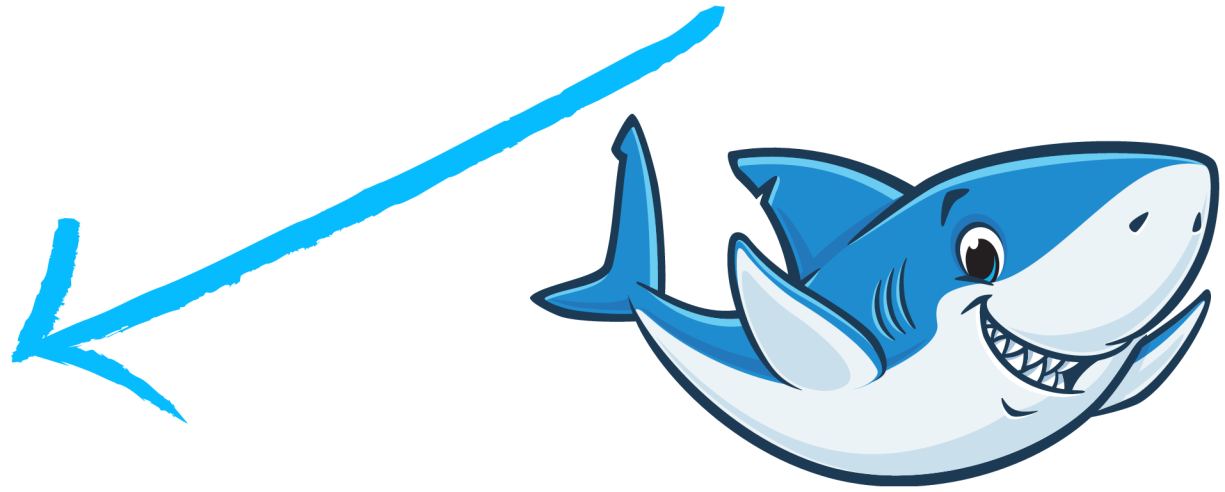

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS HELP TO ASSESS UNDERSTANDING

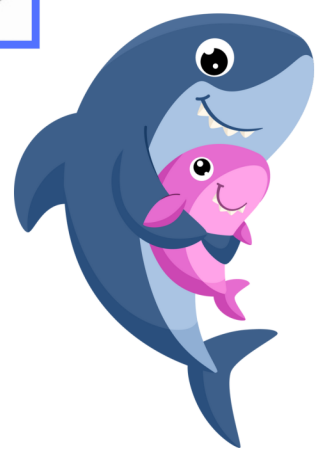

EXPAND ON THE BOOK & TEACH COPING SKILLS

Multi- sensory Activities

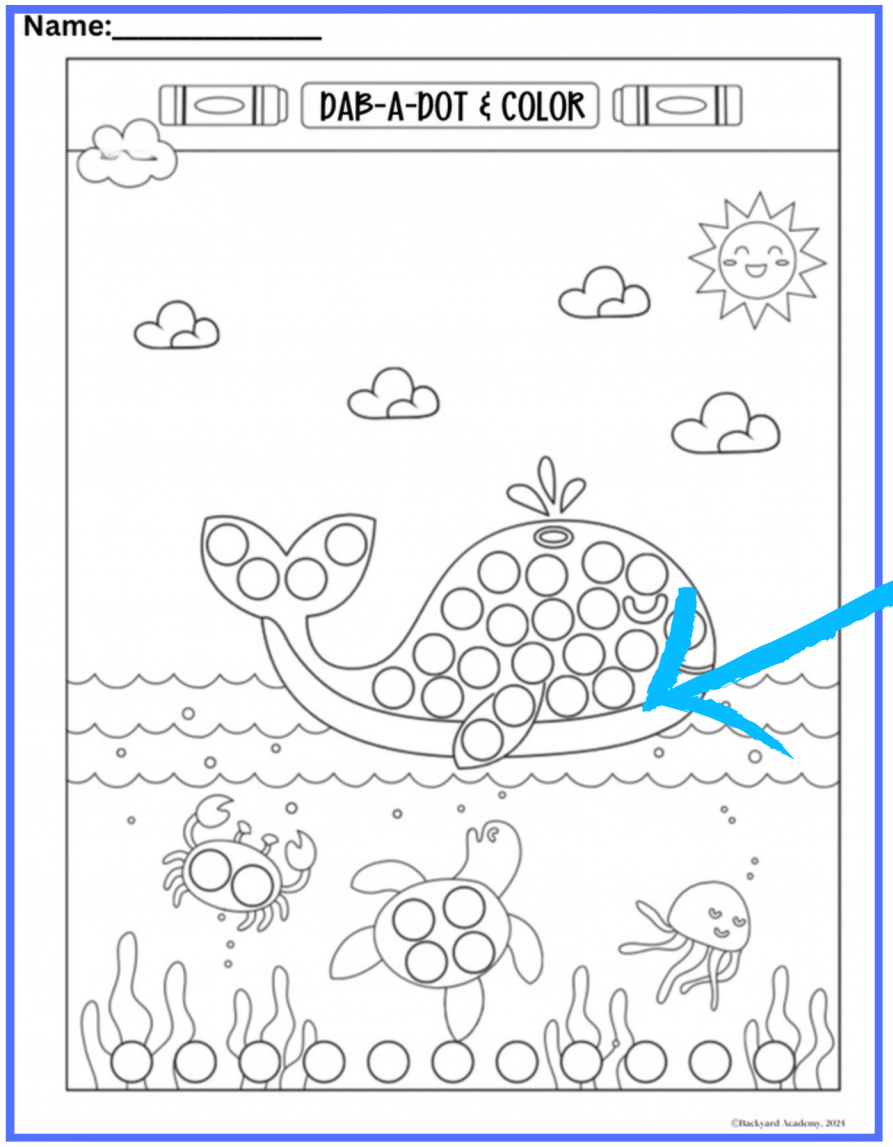

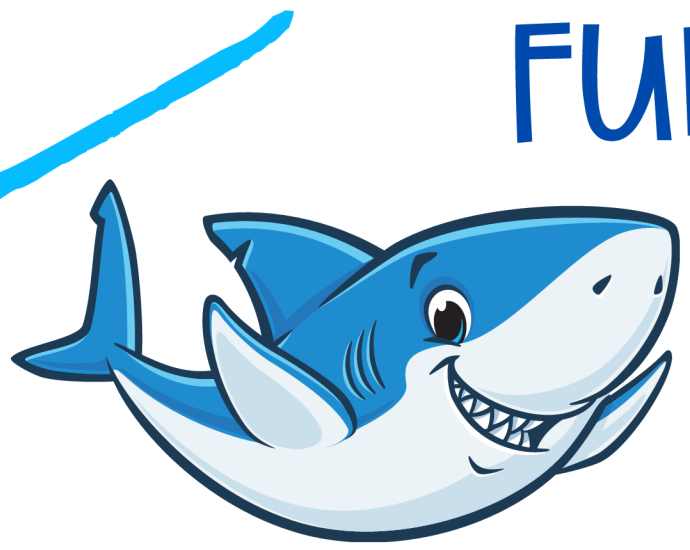

Teach concepts that will last all year long

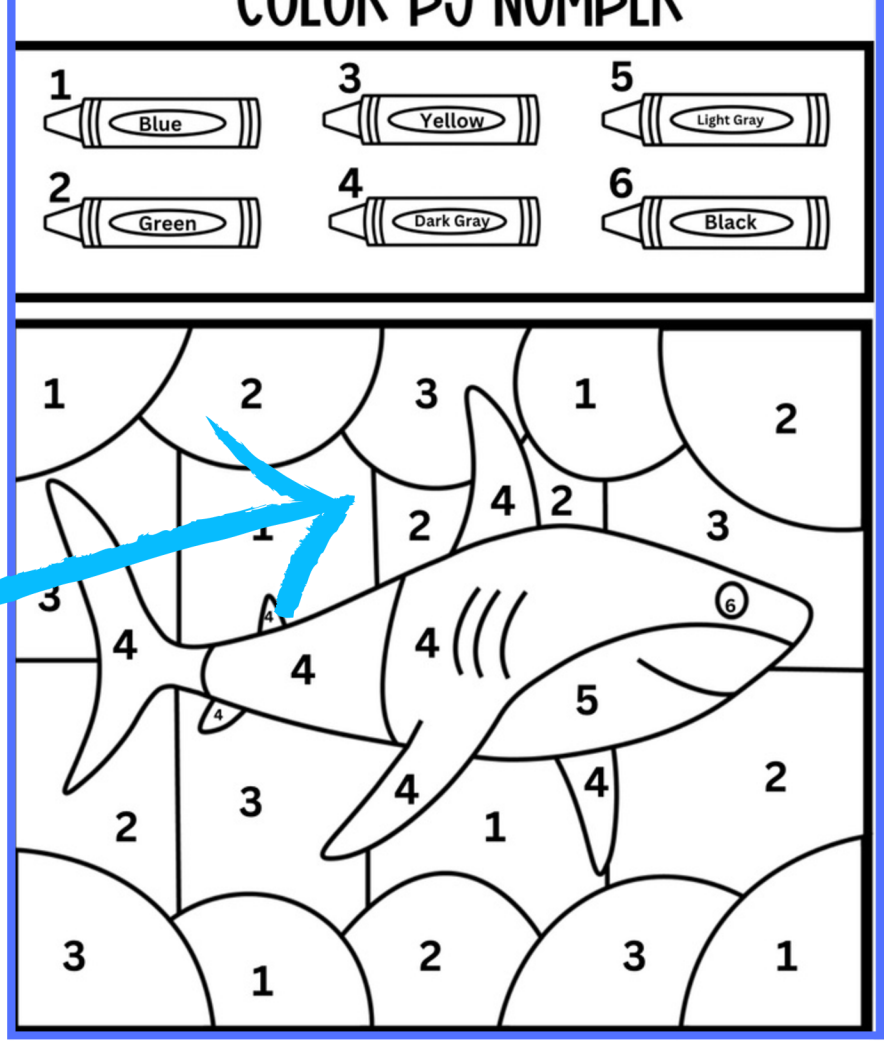

Crafts keep learning fun

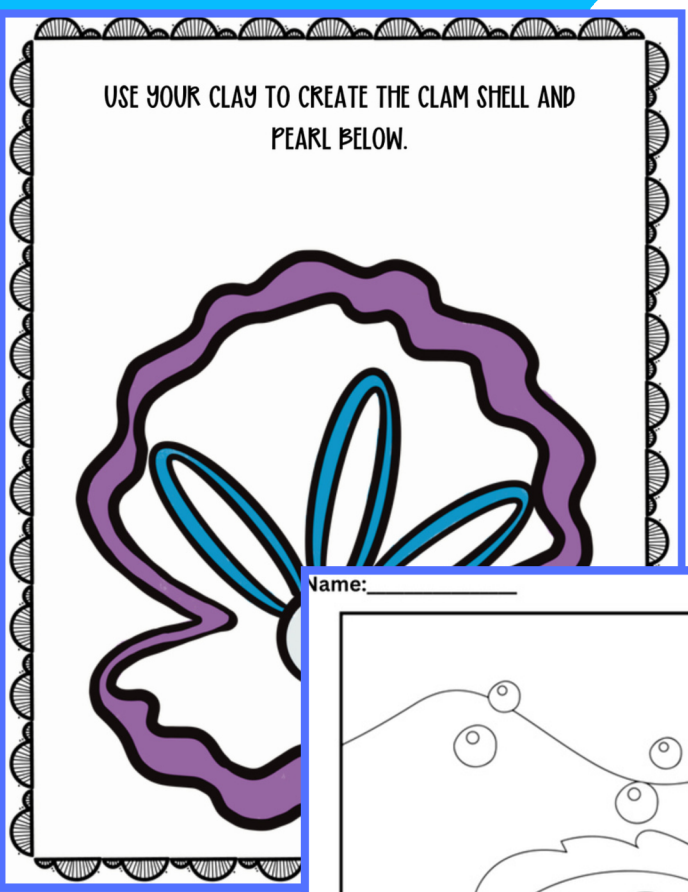

Different levels of activities for different abilities

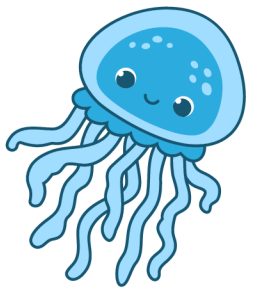

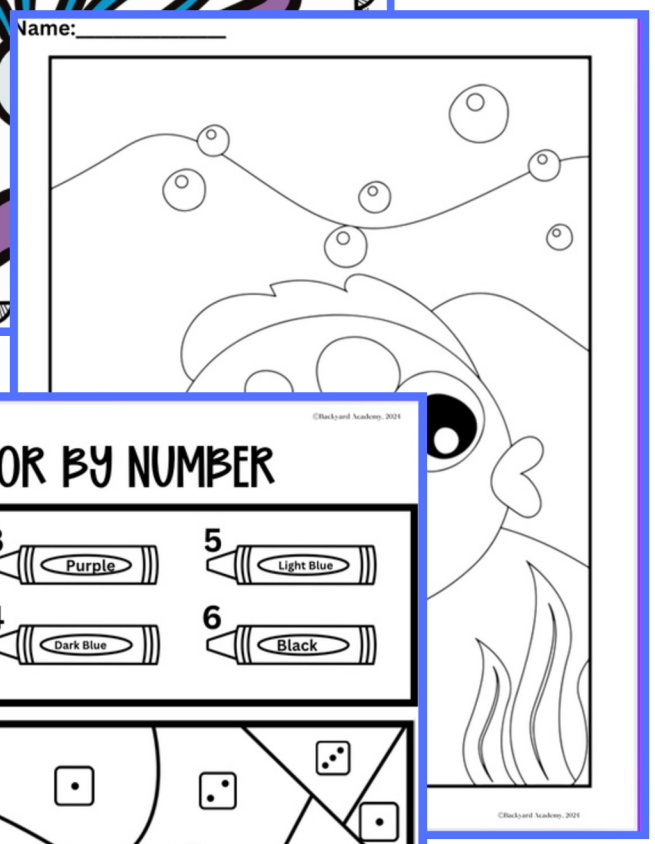

WHAT'S INCLUDED

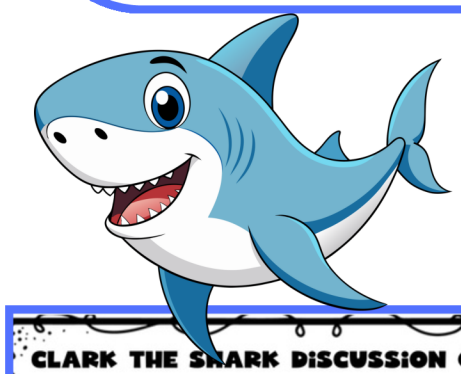

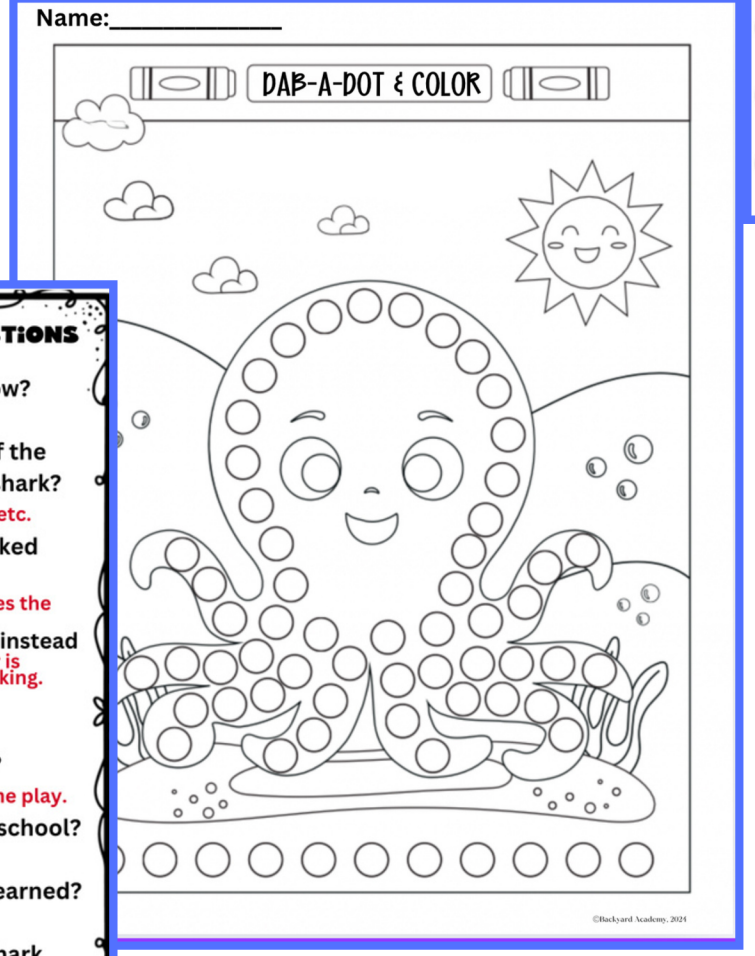

- 63 pages of fun!
- 10 Playdoh Mats
- Interactive Crafts
- Engaging activities & printables
- Answer Sheets Included

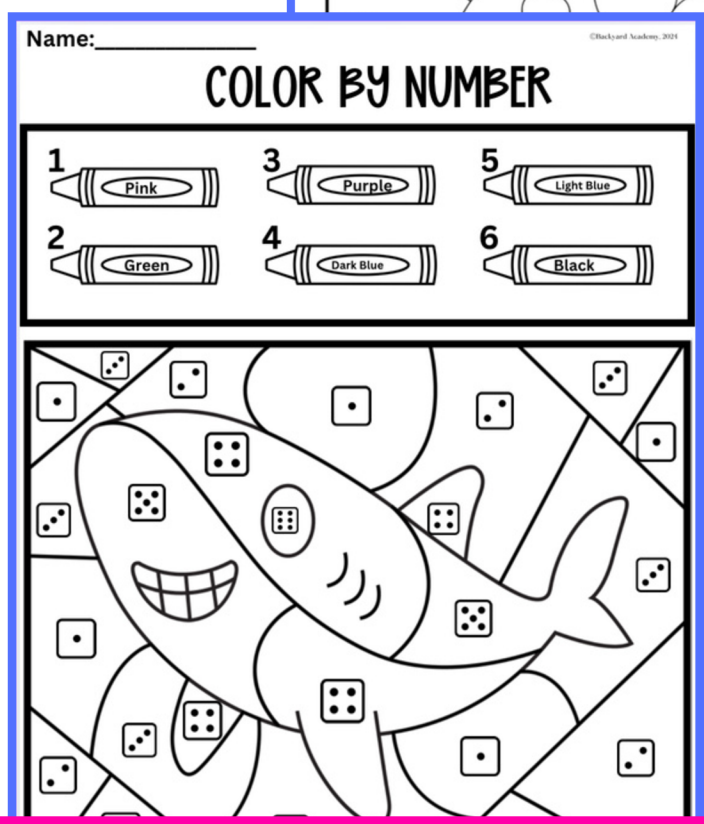

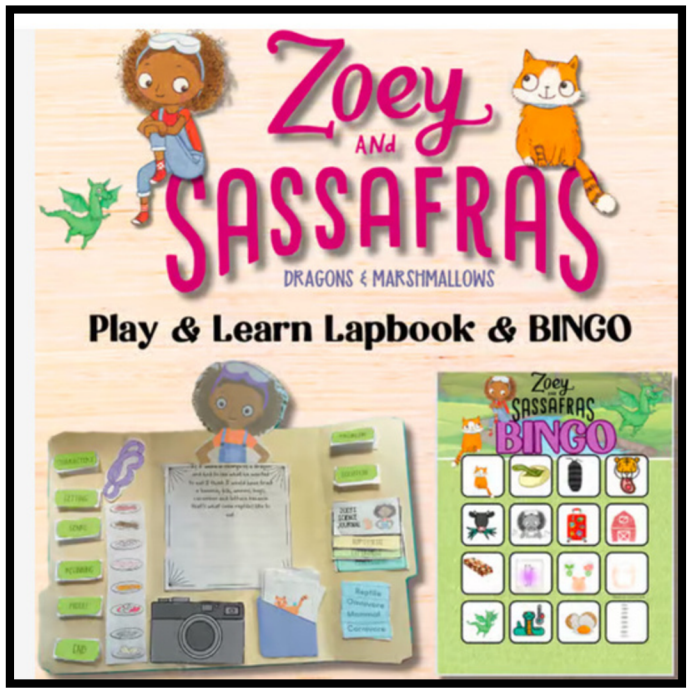

CLARK THE SHARK DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

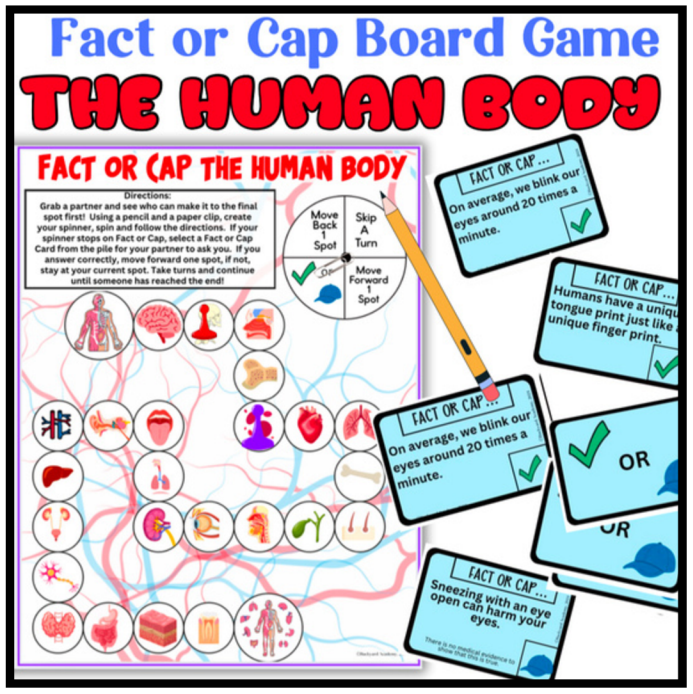

- Was Clark trying to be bad? How do you know?
  No, it says he loved school and he loved his life.
- Clark was too much shark. What are some of the things that he did that made him too much shark?
  He shouted, ate other lunches, played too rough, etc.
- What did Mrs. Inkydink tell Clark when he asked what was wrong with everyone?
  There is a time and a place for everything. Sometimes the rule is to stay cool.
- What is the rhyme that Clark thought of about instead of bouncing up in his seat?
  When the teacher is talking, don't go walking.
- What is the rule Clark made about lunch?
  Only munch your own lunch.
- What is the rule Clark made about playtime?
  Easy does it, that's the way, then my friends will let me play.
- What did Sid the Squid do when he came to school?
  He was too much.
- What did Clark tell his mom about what he learned?
  There's a time and place for everything.
- Have you ever felt like you were too much shark like Clark was?

BACKYARD ACADEMY

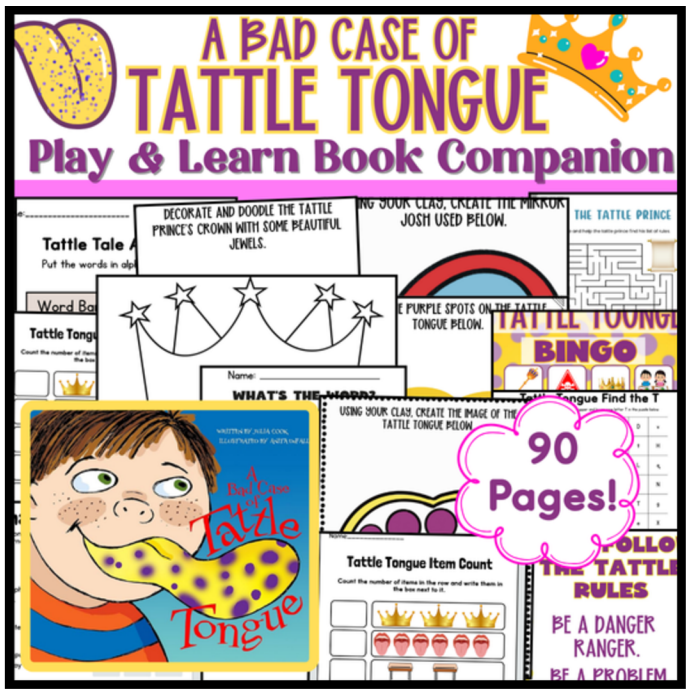

YOU MIGHT ALSO LIKE...

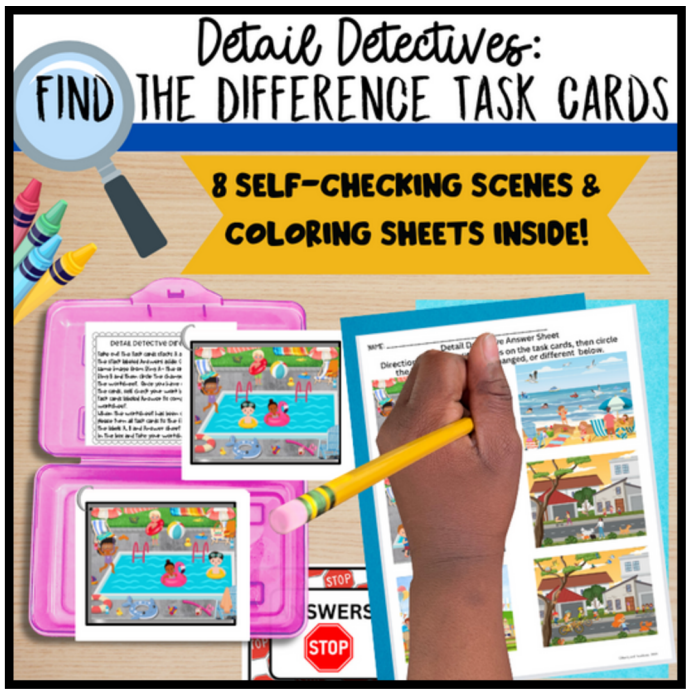

INCLUSIVE. ECLECTIC. PLAY-BASED. EDUCATION.

BACKYARD ACADEMY