CHRISTMAS

NAME: _____
DATE: _____

Story prompt

While setting up the Christmas tree, the ornaments start talking to Charlie.

Sentence strip

The ornaments tell of a plot to destroy Christmas that Charlie can stop happening.

Finish the story

Humming happily, Charlie placed the ornaments on the Christmas tree. But then a tiny voice interrupted him. He looked around the room, but his parents were upstairs. Suddenly, Charlie realised the little voice was coming from the ornament in his hand! It had something important to tell him.

Choose a sentence strip. Cut it out. Paste it next to the prompt.

The ornaments warn Charlie that the Christmas spirit is in danger, and he must act to keep the spirit alive.

The ornaments show Charlie a secret entrance through the Christmas tree to a magical land.

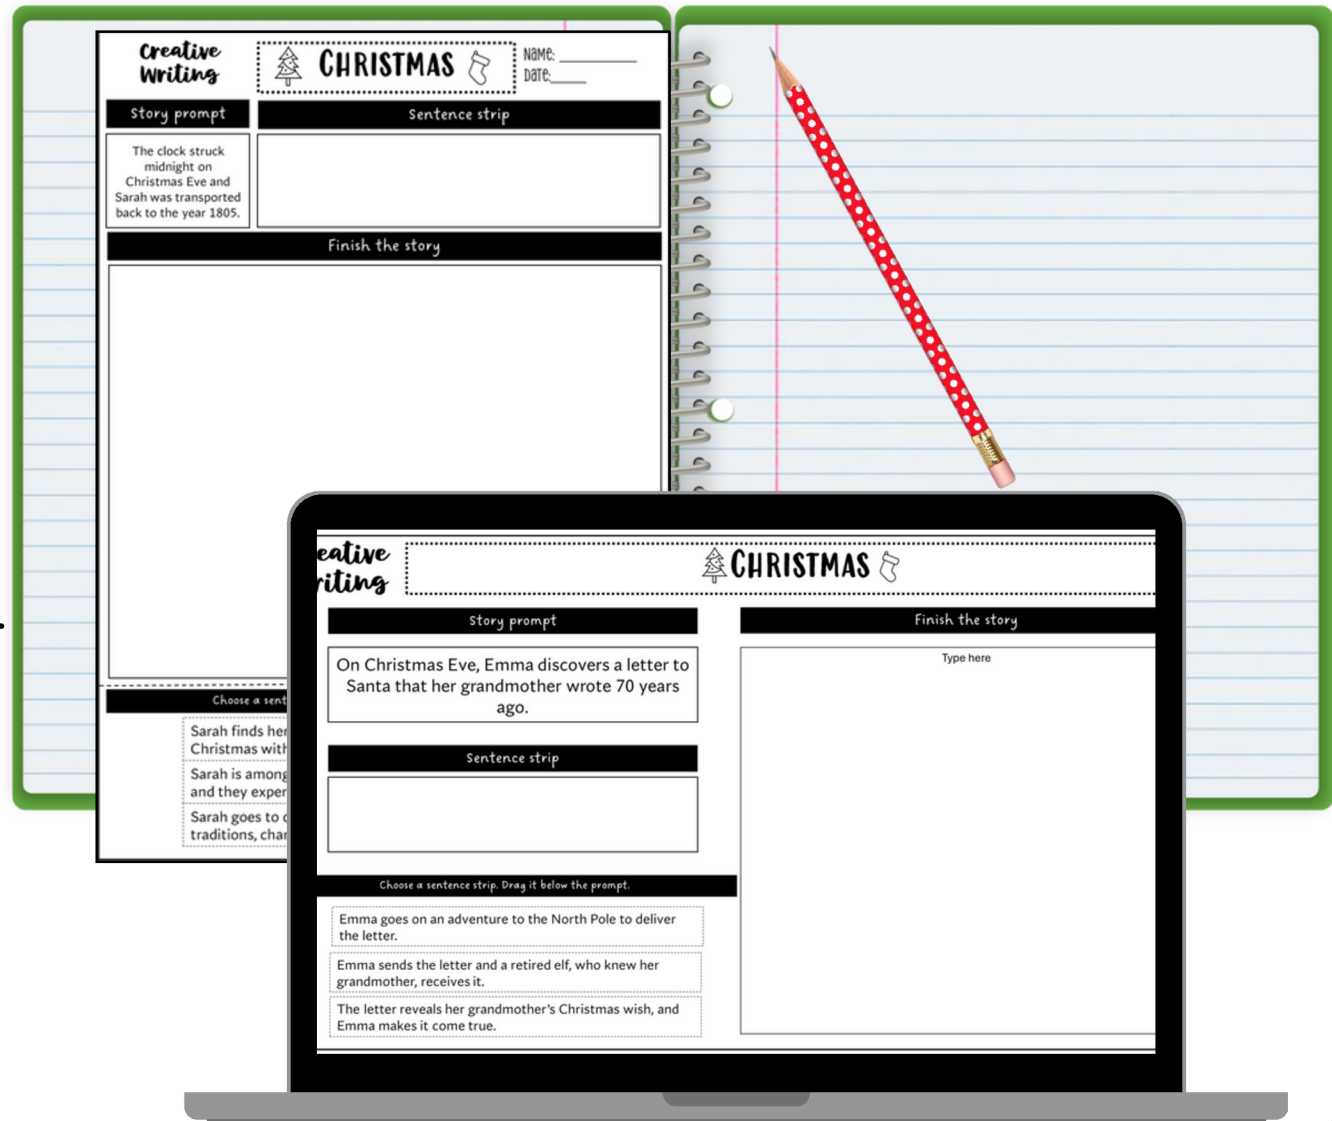

Encourage Planning

- students can plan effectively
- clear direction with the story
- template to draft ideas or story

Three overlapping "Creative Writing" templates for Christmas stories. The templates are designed for students to plan and write their stories. Each template includes a "Story prompt" section, a "Sentence strip" section, and a "Finish the story" section. The templates are titled "CHRISTMAS" and include a small Christmas tree icon. The templates are shown in a stack, with the top one being the most prominent. The top template has a "NAME:" and "DATE:" field. The middle template has a "Story prompt" section with a prompt about a clock striking midnight on Christmas Eve and Sarah being transported back to the year 1805. The bottom template has a "Story prompt" section with a prompt about a town covered in snow every year except for this year. The bottom template also includes a "Sentence strip" section and a "Finish the story" section with a "Type here" label. The bottom template also includes a "Choose a sentence strip. Drag it below the prompt." section with three options: "There is an ancient snow globe controlling the snow fall and it has been stolen.", "A group of kids go on an adventure to the mountains to restore the snow.", and "A mysterious scientist has re-directed all the snow to fall away from the town."

Engaging Writing

- printable version great for tactile learning
- keep students engaged through cut and paste
- digital version easy to use
- clear and consistent format

Reduce Cognitive Load

- get students started straight away
- remove the burden of thinking of a fresh idea

The image displays three overlapping 'Creative Writing' worksheets for Christmas. Each worksheet has a header with 'Creative Writing' and 'CHRISTMAS' with a small tree icon. The top worksheet shows a 'Story prompt' section with the text: 'While setting up the Christmas tree, the ornaments start talking to Charlie.' and a 'Finish the story' section.
