The Adventures of Lou and Fin

Then Lou spun around 3 times, feeling a bit motion sick. "I don't think this will really make me shrink, Fin!"

"Maybe not, but you do look funny," Fin laughed with his friend.

Fluency Passage

Lou and his best friend Fin were playing 'scientists' in the yard. They had jars, extension wires, and tubes ready to make explosions and inventions!

"What invention are you working on, Fin?" Lou asked, wagging his tail.

"It's a rocket ship," Fin replied. Then, he grinned cheekily. "We will be able to fly this rocket to the moon!"

"How?" Lou jumped up and down. Then, he looked closer at the rocket in confusion. "Isn't it a bit small?"

"When we shrink, we can go on a mission through space in it," Fin replied with a smile. "We might even fight an alien invasion!"

"How will we shrink?" Lou asked excitedly.

"Well," Fin looked around the yard. "It starts with digestion. We need to make a potion." Lou jumped to action and got a pot and a mixing spoon.

"We need some leaves, water, and dirt for this solution," Fin gave the instructions.

The two dogs gathered the supplies and returned to the mixing station.

"Are you ready?" Fin wagged his tail. "I give you permission to try to the potion! After you drink it, spin around 3 times to shrink."

Lou licked the mixture in the pot. "Yuck!" He stuck his tongue out and laughed. Then Lou spun around 3 times, feeling a bit motion sick. "I don't think this will really make me shrink, Fin!"
