Facts About St Patrick's Day

St Patrick's Day is celebrated on the 17th of March.

The holiday was originally a religious holiday, but today it is more a celebration of Ireland.

The first St Patrick's Day parade took place in America.

On St Patrick's Day many people dress up as leprechauns - a mythical miniature man.

Leprechauns have nothing to do with Saint Patrick, but they are connected to the celebrations since they have a shared Irish origin.

According to Irish folk tales, leprechauns are mischievous creatures that were shoemakers. They stockpiled their profits in pots and hid them at the end of the rainbow.

Green clothes and shamrocks are worn to celebrate St Patrick's Day.

Shamrocks are a type of clover.

The Irish flag is known as the tricolor – vertical stripes of green, white and orange.
