RESOLUTION

End the Story

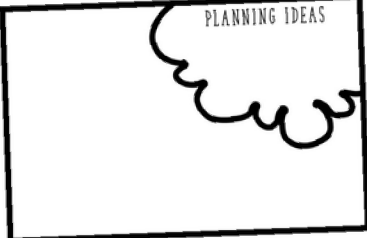

The resolution is the ending of the story. This is where readers discover how the adventure concludes and what the future holds for the characters. The hero may return home, be celebrated as a champion, or begin a new role in the kingdom.

A strong resolution leaves readers feeling satisfied while showing how the hero has changed during the journey. Some graphic novels also include a small hint about a future adventure to keep readers wondering what comes next.

ASK YOURSELF...

- How does the story end?
- What has the hero learned during their quest?

DIALOGUE IDEAS

The prophecy has begun.

The dragon isn't our enemy!

The forest has a secret...

We don't have much time!

Magic is fading from the realm...

Something ancient...is awake...

The kingdom is counting on us.

I think we're being watched...

We begin the quest!

STORY STARTERS

The ancient prophecy had finally come true...

Hidden beneath the castle was a secret...

The dragon had returned after one hundred years...

Nobody had entered the enchanted forest and returned...

A mysterious letter arrived from the royal palace...

The crystal began glowing in the middle of the night...

Something stirred beneath the mountain...

The old wizard whispered a warning...

The kingdom's greatest secret was about to be revealed...

Teach writing!

Motivate students to enjoy the writing process.

Encourage reluctant writers by providing a scaffold.

Watch students grow in confidence as they write.
