

ROLL, READ AND WRITE HALLOWEEN

HOW TO PLAY THE GAME-VERSION 1

To play the game "Roll, Read, and Write," follow these instructions:

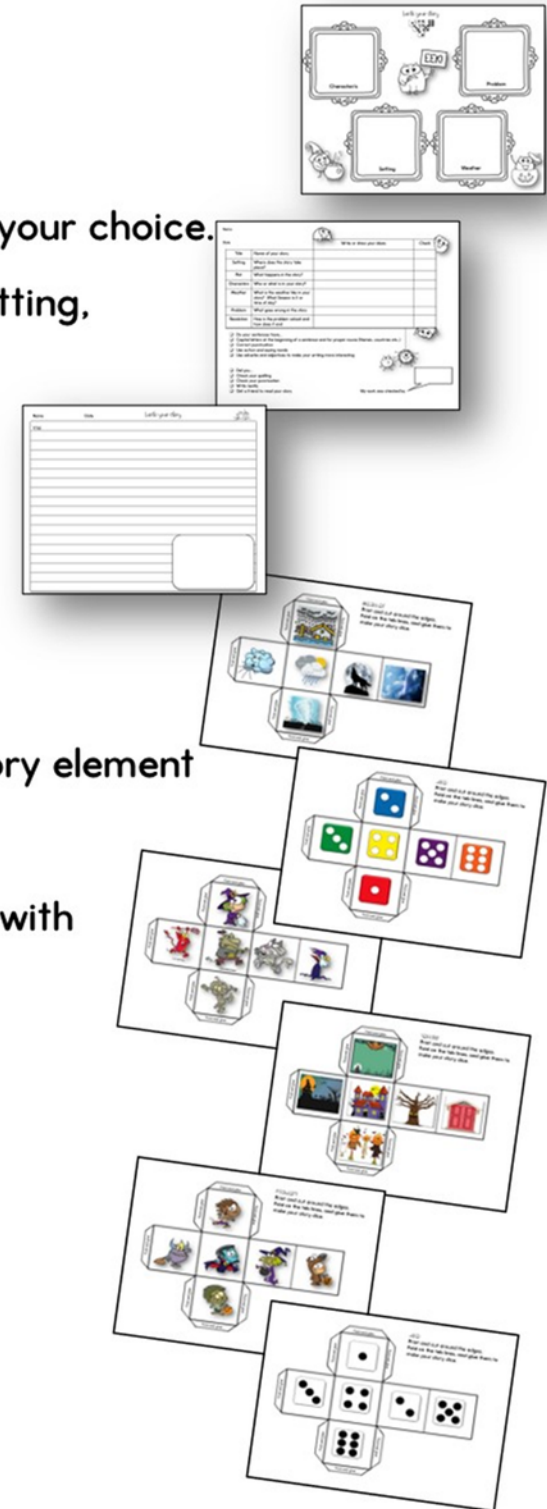

1. Obtain a six-sided dice, either physically or through an online dice roller of your choice.
2. Roll the dice four separate times to randomly select the main character, setting, problem, and weather for your mixed-up story.
3. The first roll determines the main character.
4. The second roll determines the setting.
5. The third roll determines the problem or conflict within the story.
6. The fourth roll determines the weather conditions.
7. Alternatively, you can create custom dice specifically designed for each story element and use them instead.

Enjoy the game, let your imagination run wild, and create fascinating stories with unexpected combinations!

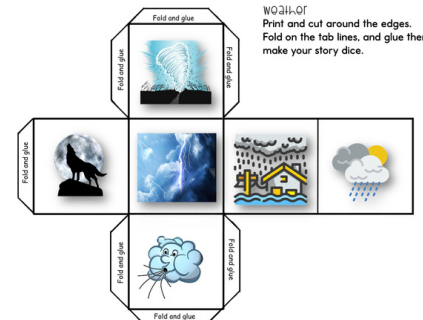

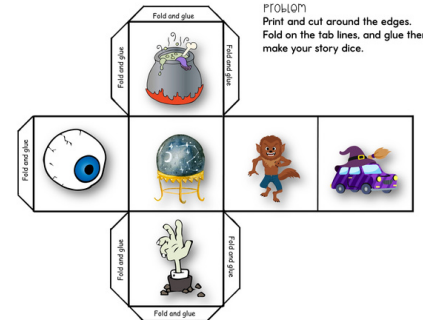

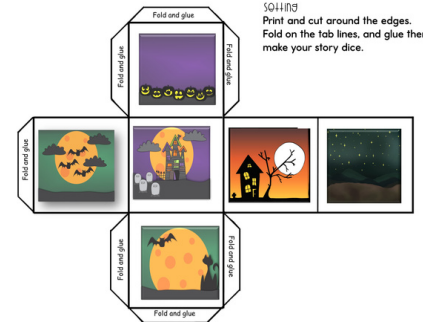

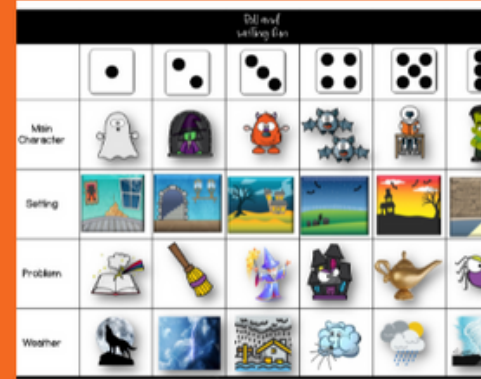

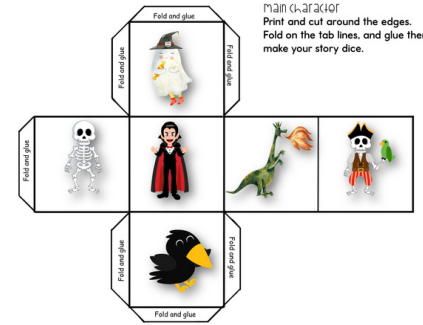

VERSION 2

Use the six-sided dice as usual but this time use the choose a character, setting, problem, and weather event from the cards provided.

This way the students get to 4 different choices for each roll

ROLL, READ AND HALLOWEEN

"Roll, Read, and Write – Sparking Creative Writing"

Description: This activity offers an exciting and interactive approach to enhancing students' writing skills. It effectively stimulates their imagination and storytelling abilities by making the writing process enjoyable. It serves as an excellent tool for addressing the fundamental elements of a story: who, what, where, when, and why.

Key Features:

- 1. Engaging Story Prompts: The game incorporates a set of story prompts that students can randomly roll. These prompts are not only enjoyable but also serve as creative triggers for storytelling.
- 2. Abundance of Choices: With numerous story prompts available on a single game board, students have a wide array of options to choose from, ensuring that each writing session is unique and captivating.
- 3. Collaborative Learning: While it can be used independently, "Roll, Read, and Write" also encourages collaborative learning. Students can partner up or engage in friendly writing challenges, fostering a sense of teamwork and shared creativity.

"Roll, Read, and Write" is more than just a game; it's a powerful tool for improving students' writing skills in an enjoyable and interactive manner.

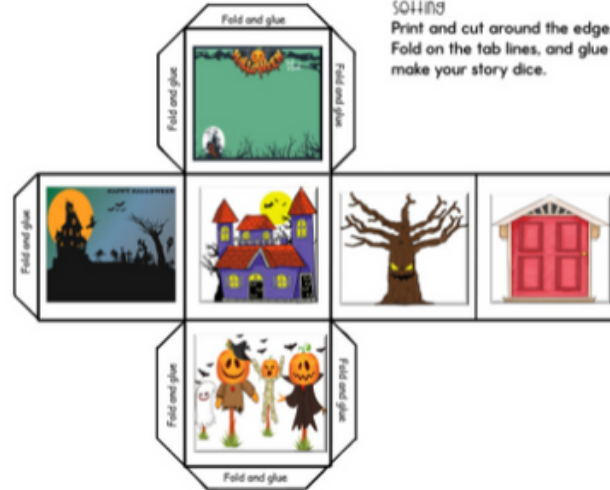

It ignites their creativity and provides a fun way to explore the art of storytelling.

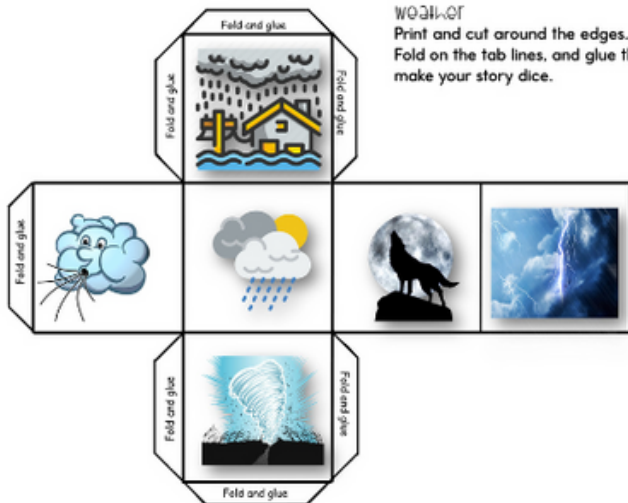

ROLL, READ AND HALLOWEEN

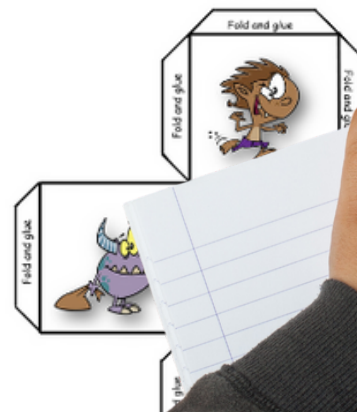

die
Print and cut around the edges.
Fold on the tab lines, and glue them to make your story dice.

setting
Print and cut around the edges.
Fold on the tab lines, and glue them to make your story dice.

weather
Print and cut around the edges.
Fold on the tab lines, and glue them to make your story dice.

problem
Print and cut around the edges.
Fold on the tab lines, and glue them to make your story dice.

Name

Date

Write or draw your ideas

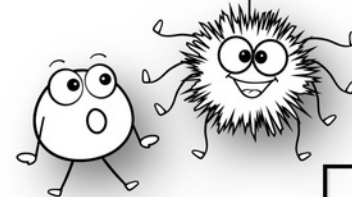

Check

Title	Name of your story
Setting	Where does the story take place?
Plot	What happens in the story?
Characters	Who or what is in your story?
Weather	What is the weather like in your story? What Season is it or time of day?
Problem	What goes wrong in the story
Resolution	How is the problem solved and how does it end

- ☐ Do your sentences have...
- ☐ Capital letters at the beginning of a sentence and for proper nouns (Names, countries etc..)
- ☐ Correct punctuation
- ☐ Use action and saying words
- ☐ Use adverbs and adjectives to make your writing more interesting

- ☐ Did you...
- ☐ Check your spelling
- ☐ Check your punctuation
- ☐ Write neatly
- ☐ Get a friend to read your story

My work was checked by

Name

Date

Write your story

TITLE

The moon was full, and in the howling of wolves could be heard in the distance. For the first time in my life, I truly know what fear meant.

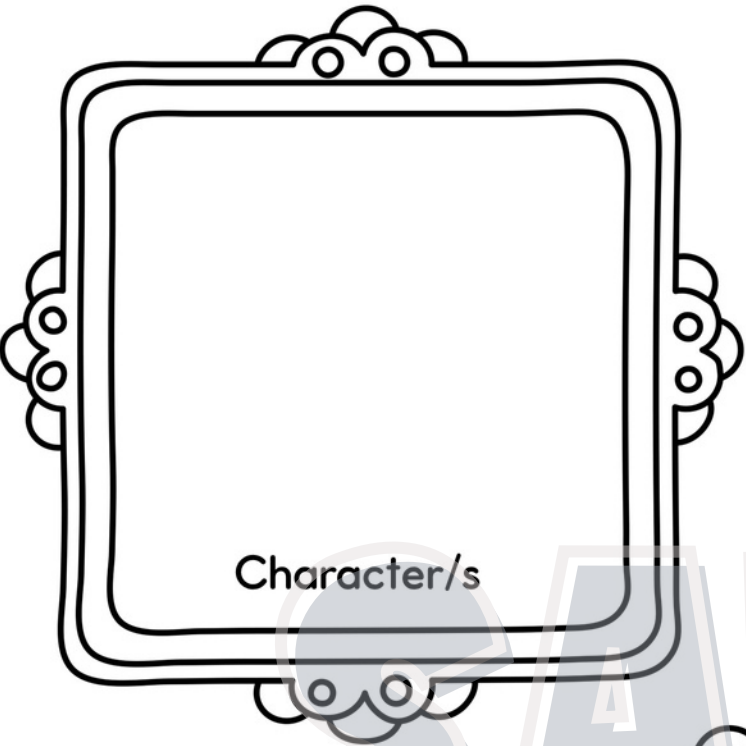

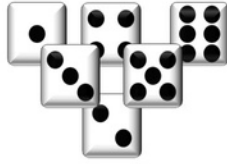

Illustrate your story

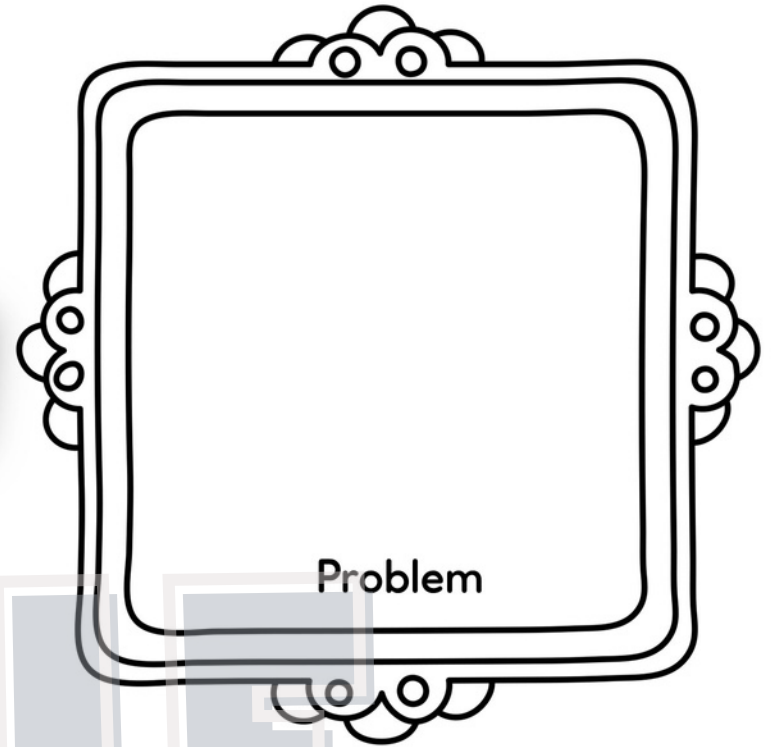

Illustrate your story

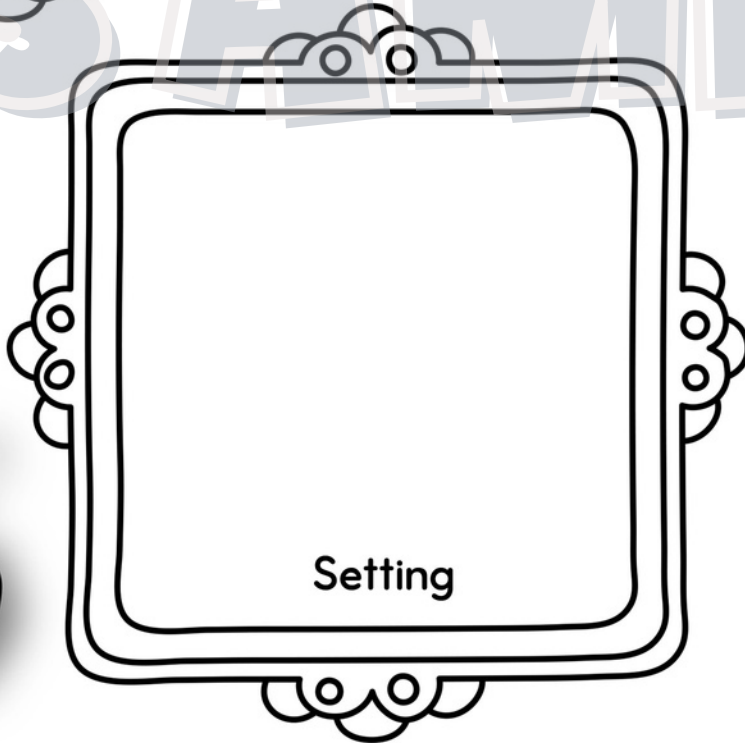

Write your story

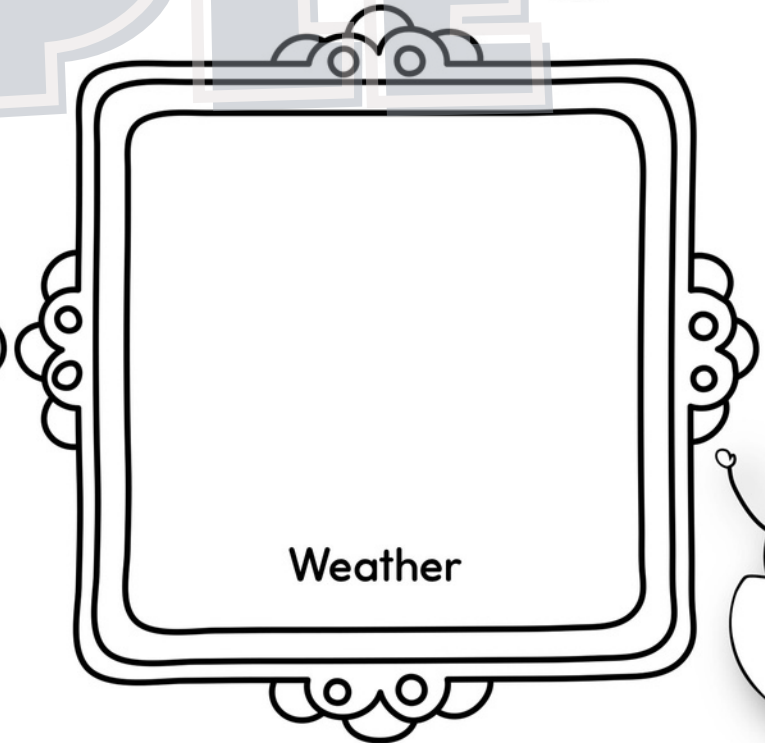

Character/s

Problem

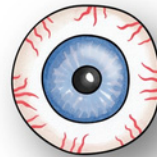

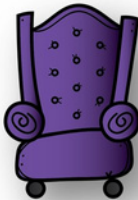

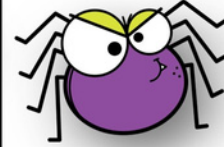

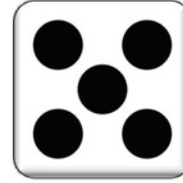

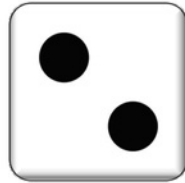

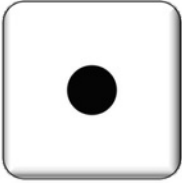

Setting

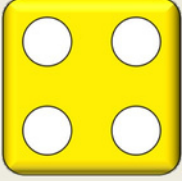

Weather

Pick a
problem

Roll and writing fun

Main Character
Setting
Problem
Weather

