Thank you for purchasing these fluency passages! I hope that your students enjoy them as much as mine!

My selection of novel fluency sets is growing! Please be sure to check them out!

My suggestions for use:

- Students can work in pairs or with the teacher.
- Have students trade fluency sheets, and take turns reading with a one-minute timer. The listening student should note the final word read by the reading student, and mark the final number of words read in the appropriate box at the bottom of the page.
- Do this three to five times weekly so students can track their own improvement.
- This makes a wonderful ice-breaker activity to start each day's class!

(The numbers at the end of each line represent the number of words from the beginning of the passage to that point.)

Anne of Green Gables

Fluency Practice (Chapter 6/Marilla Makes Up Her Mind)

Get there they did however, in due season. Mrs. Spencer lived in a big 14 yellow house at White Sands Cove, and she came to the door with surprise 28
and welcome mingled on her benevolent face. 35

"Dear, dear," she exclaimed, "you're the last folks I was looking for today, 48 but I'm real glad to see you. You'll put your horse in? And how are you, Anne?" 65

"I'm as well as can be expected, thank you," said Anne smilelessly. A 78 blight seemed to have descended on her. 85

"I suppose we'll stay a little while to rest the mare," said Marilla, "but I 100 promised Matthew I'd be home early. The fact is, Mrs. Spencer, there's been a 114 queer mistake somewhere, and I've come over to see where it is. We send 128 word, Matthew and I, for you to bring us a boy from the asylum. We told your 145 brother Robert to tell you we wanted a boy ten or eleven years old." 159

"Marilla Cuthbert, you don't say so!" said Mrs. Spencer in distress. "Why, 171
Robert we sent word down by his daughter Nancy and she said you wanted a 186 girl – didn't she Flora Jane?" appealing to her daughter who had come out to 200
the steps. 202

"She certainly did, Miss Cuthbert," corroborated Flora Jane earnestly. 211

"I'm dreadful sorry," said Mrs. Spencer. "It's too bad; but it certainly 223 wasn't my fault, you see, Miss Cuthbert. I did the best I could and I thought I 240 was following your instructions. Nancy is a terrible flighty thing. I've often had 253 to scold her well for her heedlessness." 260

"It was our own fault," said Marilla resignedly. "We should have come to 273
you ourselves and not left an important message to be passed along by word 287 of mouth in that fashion. Anyhow, the mistake has been made and the only 301 thing to do is to set it right. Can we send the child back to the asylum? I 319
suppose they'll take her back won't they?" 326

"I suppose so," said Mrs. Spencer thoughtfully… 333
