

ICEBREAKER GAME

Chocolate Ice Cream

Vanilla Ice Cream

THIS OR THAT?

"This or That" as an icebreaker can offer several valuable benefits for creating a positive and engaging learning environment:

How many legs
on 2 cows?

Check
Answer

8

Question
Board

BENEFITS OF iCE BREAKiNG GAMES

Eases Nervousness:

Icebreakers help break down initial barriers and nervousness among students, especially on the first day of class or when students are new to each other. The lighthearted and enjoyable nature of "This or That" can help students relax and feel more comfortable interacting with their peers.

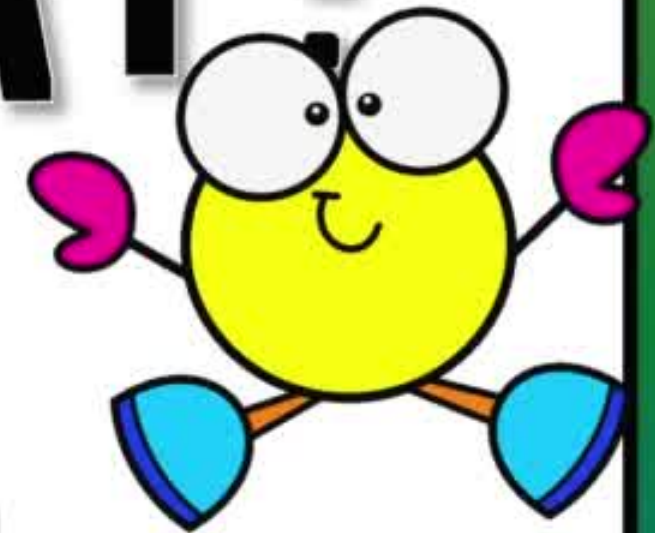

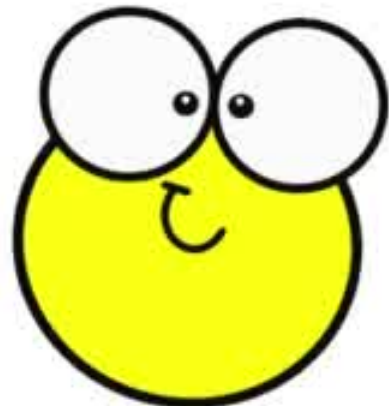

"Welcome to 'This or That'!"

"Choose a question, pick 'this or that,' and let's learn together!"

THIS OR THAT?

How to Play

- Pick any question on the question board.
- Choose a “this or that” option to reveal a question
- Click the “Check Answer” box to check the answer.
- Click “Question Board” to go back to the question board.
- Questions already answered will disappear automatically.

PLAY

Builds Relationships:

Icebreakers foster a sense of community and camaraderie among students. By participating in a game together, students start forming connections and getting to know each other better, which can lead to stronger relationships throughout the course.

"Select any question to start the game!"

QUESTION BOARD

Question
1

Question
2

Question
3

Question
4

Question
5

Question
6

Question
7

Question
8

Question
9

Question
10

Question
11

Question
12

Question
13

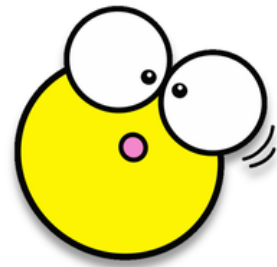

Question
14

Question
15

Encourages Participation:

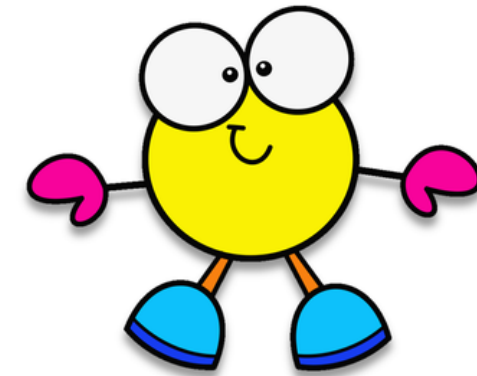

The interactive and game-like nature of "This or That" encourages active participation. Students are more likely to engage and contribute when they feel the activity is enjoyable and non-intimidating, thereby enhancing classroom discussions and group dynamics.

Check Answer" button
"Click to reveal the correct answer!"

This or that?

Question 15

Boosts Energy and Focus:

Icebreakers inject a burst of energy and excitement into the learning environment.

Starting a lesson with a fun game helps students transition from their previous activities, like recess or lunch, and primes them for focused learning.

Click on a question"
"Choose 'This' or 'That'"
"See if you're right!"

How many minutes
in an hour?

Check
Answer

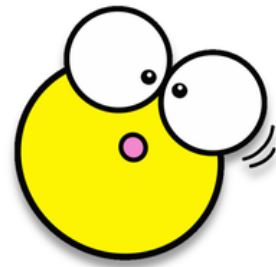

60

Question
Board

Promotes Critical Thinking:

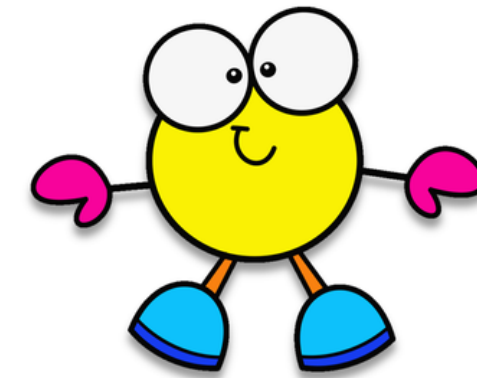

The "This or That" format prompts students to make decisions based on their reasoning, encouraging critical thinking and logical analysis. It challenges them to consider different options and weigh the pros and cons, even in a simple context.

Finished with a question?"
"Click 'Question Board' to go back

This or that?

Question 2

Cats

Dogs

Supports Inclusivity:

Icebreakers promote inclusivity by providing every student with an opportunity to participate.

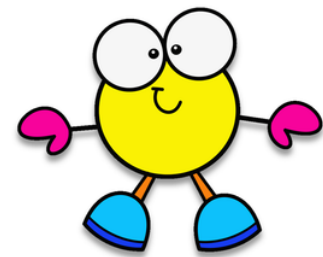

It's a level playing field where all students can share their preferences and opinions, regardless of their academic background or personality.

Make learning fun"
"Strengthen critical thinking"
"Explore new ideas

This or that?

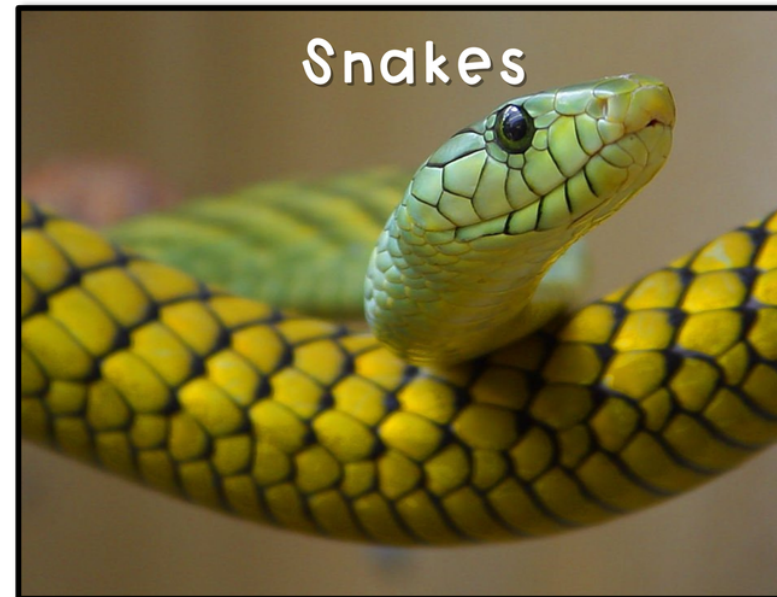

Question 11

Spiders

Snakes

© Oceanview Resources

How many in a dozen?

Check Answer

12

Question Board

© Oceanview Resources

How long is a decade?

Check Answer

10 Years

Question Board

© Oceanview Resources

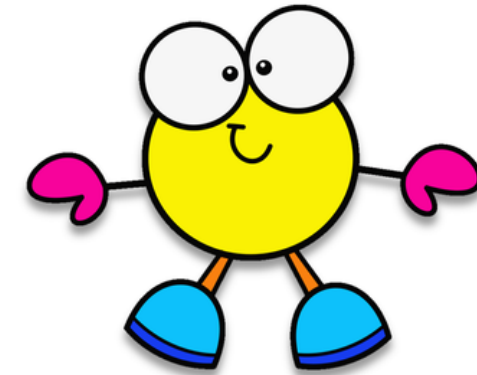

Reduces Classroom Tension:

Icebreakers help diffuse any tension or anxiety that might arise in a classroom setting. The relaxed and playful atmosphere encourages students to see each other as individuals and not just fellow classmates.

This or that?

Question 14

Sets a Positive Tone:

Starting a class with a fun icebreaker like "This or That" sets a positive tone for the entire session. It sends the message that learning can be enjoyable, interactive, and engaging, which can motivate students and contribute to a positive attitude toward learning.

