Lesson 10-3 Model Oral Sharing

Here is my writing. I am word smart. I read books in the library, and I tell stories. I am nature smart. I plant flowers in the garden, and I look for bugs in the dirt. I am people smart. I invite people to play, so they feel included.

In my silhouette, I have drawn all these pictures to show how smart I am in lots of different ways. Here, I drew a mouth with talking lines and an open book because I love telling stories and learning new things. This is a magnifying glass looking at a ladybug. I like looking closely at bugs and nature. That shows that I am nature smart. The love heart means I care about people. I try to be kind and help others. That is people smart.
