- Character Analysis: A large rectangular box for "Lenore Dougal" with the prompt "Who is she? What do we learn about her?"
- Motives: A spiral-bound notebook icon labeled "Lenore's Motives" for students to write down reasons for her actions.
- Key Events: A cloud-shaped thought bubble labeled "The Extraction" with the prompt "What happened to the citizens of Limetown?" and a rectangular box labeled "The End" for a final reflection or conclusion.
- Reflection: A large rectangular box at the bottom labeled "Thoughts/Questions/Other" for students to write their final thoughts or questions.

The worksheets are presented in a stack, showing the front cover and the first two pages of the template.
